Vincent Reed Drowns In Deercreek Reservoir

First drowning at the still unfinished Deercreek Reservoir took the life of a Circleville man about 8 p.m. Saturday.

Dead is Vincent Von Reed, 45, of 217 E. Mound St., plant superintendent of Permacrete Products in Columbus.

Reed and a companion, Logan Campbell Jr., sales manager of Kenny Hannan Ford, had gone to the federal reservoir to try out the engine on a boat and to spend the rest of the day boating, skiing and relaxing.

The two men were in the middle of the lake about a mile from the dam when the engine failed, according to sheriff's deputies.

REED removed the engine cover on the outboard motor to make adjustments. Campbell reported that he turned his back on Reed for a minute and then felt the boat rock.

Campbell stated that he shouted over his shoulder for Reed to stop rocking the boat when he heard his friend scream that something had caught him. Campbell turned to see Reed in the water fighting to stay afloat.

As Campbell swam toward Reed to assist him he noticed that the boat was drifting away in the heavy winds blowing over the lake. He returned to the boat and tried to paddle it using his hands, to the side of the other man.

Sheriff's deputies reported that by the time Campbell was able to return to the site where Reed fell from the boat he had gone under for the last time.

Campbell signaled to John Dunlap III, who was skiing nearby, that someone had drowned. Dunlap then raced to a phone and informed the Pickaway County Sheriff's Office of the incident.

Volunteers and deputies from Pickaway, Madison and Fayette spent most of the weekend searching the lake for Reed's body. Members of the Fayette County Civil Defense Rescue Squad dragged the lake Saturday night and Scuba divers searched the lake bottom most of Sunday.

THE body was spotted on the west side of the reservoir floating face down about 7:30 a.m. Monday by Fayette County Game Protector Raymond Hinchiff and Archie Rawlison, park manager.

Probable cause of death, according to the sheriff's office, was a heart attack. Reed had been suffering from chest pain for the past week, according to family friends, but had refused to visit a doctor.

Mr. Reed was a veteran of World War II; a member of VFW and Eagles Lodges. Born Oct. 2, 1922 in Circleville, he was the son of William A. and Rosetta Pierce Reed. His mother preceded him in death in Feb. 1952. His father and step-mother survive at 729 Clinton St.

Also surviving are his widow, Ida Mae Alexander Reed; three sons, H. William, Laureville; James, U.S. Navy; Ronald, Delaware; two daughters, Mrs. Sandra Tilton, W. High St.; Miss Brenda Reed, at home and four grandchildren.

Also five brothers, William, Santee, Calif.; James, Loren, Warren, all of Circleville; and Gary, Route 2; three sisters, Mrs. Mildred Founds, Ashville; Mrs. Norma Garner, and Mrs. Delores Hickey of Circleville.

Funeral arrangements are being completed by the Deffenbaugh Funeral Home.

Amphitheatre Is Fortified For Democrats

Phone Service Still Problem For Convention

CHICAGO (AP) — The International Amphitheatre looked increasingly like a fortified compound today as preparations continued for the Democratic National Convention.

Work has been completed on a half-mile fence topped with barbed wire to screen the convention site.

John B. Criswell, convention executive director, said "plans are going along on schedule."

Robert R. Burke, 34, a Secret Service agent, is coordinating all security measures for the convention, which opens Aug. 26.

Convention officials, delegates and others will have to show their credentials at a half-dozen checkpoints before entering the amphitheatre on Chicago's South Side.

About 5,500 Illinois National Guard troops will be stationed in Chicago during the convention.

Brig. Gen. Richard T. Dunn, commander of emergency operations for the Illinois guard, said, "one battalion—about 800 men including three rifle companies—will be on regular training assembly duties each con-

Fostoria Hit By Outbreak Of Arson

FOSTORIA, Ohio (AP)—Fire bombings here kept police and firemen busy over the weekend. The most extensive damage was at the Montgomery Ward & Co. store Saturday night, where police said a fire bomb started a fire that caused $15,000 damage to the building and merchandise.

Minor damage was caused by fire bombings at Kleinhen's stationery store, the Little Dandy restaurant and a vacant house.

Police said the Sears Roebuck and Co. store and two beer carryout stores also were targets of fire bombs, but the bombs did not ignite.

Moderate damage was caused by fire bombs Sunday at the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway "right depot and at a private garage, they added.

Another fire bombing early today destroyed a vacant house, "firemen said. Police said a 17-year-old boy admitted throwing the fire bombs, but that his story does not tie in with some of the facts they gathered in their investigation.

Police fought a series of gun battles with Negroes in the Watts area of Los Angeles Sunday night. Three civilians, identified by police as Negroes, were killed and three policemen were among 31 reported injured.

In Little Rock, Ark., some minor disturbances erupted for the third consecutive night.

Police kept a close watch on two Chicago suburbs as a result of a rash of fires early Sunday. In Seattle, a fireman was struck in the forearm by one of three shotgun blasts sent into a fire station Sunday night from a passing car.

The Watts disturbances followed a festival commemorating the third anniversary of bloody rioting in the 98 per cent Negro area in which 34 persons died. In the latest outbreaks, spreading over 20 blocks, one hospital reported about 30 civilians were treated for gunshot and knife wounds and other injuries. Firemen said they had to dodge sniper bullets as they fought several blazes.

Chicago Heights and East Chicago were under 9 p.m. curfews after the series of fires. One blaze destroyed a warehouse, causing an estimated $400,000 damage. Police said five of the fires were the work of arsonists but the cause of the warehouse fire was not determined.

A policeman was shot while investigating one of the fires. Two youths were beaten, one critically, in a separate incident. Two Negroes were taken into custody in connection with some of the fires.

In Little Rock, a seven-hour curfew was placed on the city and surrounding Pulaski County Sunday night as some firebombings were reported and a patrolman's arm was grazed by shotgun pellets. There were several arrests.

At Miami, Fla., authorities Sunday cut the dark-to-dawn curfew by four hours as the city remained free of major violence for the third straight day. The full curfew had been imposed after street fighting, which led to three deaths, broke out Wednesday. The new curfew was reduced to midnight to 6 a.m.

A government spokesman said the trial would include sensational disclosures about "foreign elements" in the United States, Canada and the Bahamas who the regime of President Francois "Papa" Doc Duvalier claims plotted the unsuccessful invasion by a small band of exiles on May 20.

Ten of the invaders who landed by plane in a remote region of the country were captured and condemned to death by the same military tribunal trying Knox. However, Duvalier is expected to pardon them.

U.S. Troops Battle Reds At Approaches to Saigon

TWO GIs pull on a rope to get a pontoon into position about 15 miles southwest of Saigon, where floating mines knocked out the Ben Luc bridge (background).

Fights Flare At 2 Points; Action Heavy

SAIGON (AP) — U.S. troops guarding the southern approaches to Saigon battled the Viet Cong today at two points nine miles apart.

Helicopters landed more than 1,000 men from the 9th Division in rice fields 24 miles south of Saigon in an attempt to encircle an enemy force estimated at more than 100 troops.

Details were sketchy, and no casualty figures were reported as yet. But the fighting was said to be heavy at times.

That fight was just south of Rach Kien, a key district capital. The Americans were sent in after intelligence reports told of the enemy unit, and the GIs drew fire shortly after they landed.

Nine miles farther north and only 15 miles below Saigon, another 300 men from the 9th Division virtually wiped out an enemy platoon of 40 or so men, according to initial field reports. Only three Americans were reported wounded.

In a delayed report, U.S. headquarters said that Viet Cong force fired with bazooka-type rockets Saturday at the U.S. freighter Southport II as it approached Saigon.

U.S. Navy gunboats, helicopter gunships and Air Force fighter-bombers attacked the enemy positions along the bank and then strafed fleeing groups of Viet Cong. A U.S. spokesman said 20 Viet Cong were killed, there were no U.S. casualties and the ship was not damaged.

W. Va. Plane Crash Toll Now 35; Cause Is Sought

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP) — Three more persons died Sunday, raising to 35 the number killed by the crash of a Piedmont Airlines plane.

Two survivors, Barbara Schiller, 19, and Thomas Voigler, 27, both of Cincinnati, remained in satisfactory condition at Charleston Memorial Hospital.

"I thought it was all a bad dream, just a bad dream," Miss Schiller said. "I wasn't even looking out the window when it happened. I blacked out and when I woke up they were throwing foam all over us."

Miss Schiller was en route to vacation at Virginia Beach with two of those who died Tuesday, Judy Benhase, 20, and Sue Boskin, 19, both of Cincinnati. Darrell Triplett, 20, of Branchland, W. Va., also died Sunday.

The twin-engine Fairchild FH227, flight 230 from Louisville, Ky., to Norfolk Va., was making an instrument landing in fog and smoke when it crashed short of the main runway at Charleston's Kanawha Airport Saturday.

The plane skipped over the top of a 300-foot ravine before the runway and skidded 75 yard down the airstrip as it caught fire.

The crash is being investigated by the National Transportation Safety Board and the Administration.

Edward E. Slattery Jr., the board's director of public affairs, said Sunday the glide slope equipment at the airport has not been operating since June 16 because of "trouble with the antenna position."

The glide slope is a phase of the airport's instrument landing system.

W. G. McGee, a Piedmont vice president, said positive identification of the bodies was expected to be finished today.

The accident was the fourth fatal crash in Piedmont's history and was the worst air disaster in West Virginia.

Ohio Counts 20 Highway Deaths

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A string of single fatality accidents compounded by mishaps that took two lives each sent Ohio's traffic death toll soaring over the weekend.

At least 20 lives were lost in Ohio traffic between 6 p.m. Friday and midnight Sunday.

The weekend deaths included:

Saturday
Bertha Meyner, 85, Elyria, died of injuries received in a two-car crash west of Elyria.

John Blackwell, 33, Saluda, N.C., and Gloria Krenka, 20, Cleveland, died of injuries received when their cars collided head-on on Interstate 71 on Cleveland's West Side.

James R. Beuhler, 18, and his passenger, Mary E. Baab, 17, both of Dover, were killed in a two-car crash on Ohio 212 in Tuscarawas County.

George H. Lowery, 59, Columbus, was killed after his car crashed off a rural road in Delaware County south of Galena.

Charles T. Flinders, 30, Fostoria, died after his car ran off Ohio 39 in Richland County.

Russell L. Greenhill, 23, Mansfield was injured fatally when his car plunged off a road east of Ohio 39 in Richland County. Leland E. Wright, 35, Wadsworth, died after the car in which he was riding collided nearly head-on with another in the village of Norton, Summit County.

Sunday
Lowell W. Simpson, 36, Marietta, was killed when his car and another collided on U. S. 33 in Union County.

Edgar Fontaine Jr., 23, Cleveland, died after the car in which he was riding went off a Cleveland street and slammed into a utility pole.

Charles Lee Henderson, 21, New Lebanon, was killed after his car ran off Wolfe Creek Pike in northwestern Montgomery County and hit a utility pole.

Dolly White, 27, Columbus, was killed when a car in which she was riding overturned on Ohio 204 in Fairfield County.

John A. Scherrer, 28, Omaha, Neb., was killed when his tractor-trailer crashed on U. S. 24 near Tiffin.

Earl Elliot, 40, Lincoln Park, Mich., died Sunday in a Dayton hospital from injuries suffered Friday night in a Dayton auto accident.

Uruguayan Minister Is Released

MONTEVIDEO, Uruguay (AP) — Kidnapers have released Ulises Pereira Reverbel, presidential adviser whose abduction touched off police raids on the national university, student riots to protest the raids and the biggest manhunt in Uruguayan history.

Pereira was left drugged in a car on a street corner Sunday. He staggered to a house and asked Mrs. Graciela Perez to call the police.

Mrs. Perez said Pereira, who heads the state telephone and power monopoly, looked "tired and very dirty." He told her his captors "treated me well but would not let me sleep."

His abductors, reported to be members of a pro-Peking group called Tupamaro said they "arrested" Pereira for urging President Jorge Pacheco Areco to take a tough line during recent labor trouble. They also demanded reversal of Pacheco's austerity policy, but the president refused to negotiate with the kidnapers.

East German Chief, Czech Leaders Talk

KARLOVY VARY, Czechoslovakia (AP) — East German Communist party chief Walter Ulbricht arrived at this Czechoslovak spa today for talks with Prague's reformist leaders on political and economic relations.

Ulbricht was greeted on his arrival by Czechoslovak party chief Alexander Dubcek, the man he tried to get the Kremlin to unseat and whose liberal reforms he opposed so vigorously.

Ulbricht and his hosts were expected to give much attention to economic issues and relations with Comecon, the Communist common market. On the political side, Ulbricht was expected to ask the Prague men for assurances that their dealings with West Germany would not harm the position of the Communist regime in East Germany.

Nixon To Use TV Heavily during Campaign

By WALTER R. MEARS

Associated Press Writer

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) —

Richard M. Nixon is mapping a Republican presidential campaign that will stress television instead of hectic rounds of vote-seeking rallies.

And Nixon seeks also to make the most of his vice presidential running mate, Maryland Gov. Spiro T. Agnew, in dealing with campaign issues and in covering territory for the ticket.

Those themes emerged from his strategy sessions under way during Nixon's working vacation at Mission Bay, a San Diego resort. A new round of talks was set today, while Agnew planned his first independent campaign trip and Mrs. Nixon, with daughter Tricia, sets out for three days of appearances from Seattle to Los Angeles.

Sen. John Tower of Texas, a Nixon ally in the campaign for the GOP presidential nomination and the chairman of his key issues committee, was due in San Diego to sit in on the talks shaping the autumn program.

Herbert G. Klein, Nixon's chief spokesman, said the nominee and his men already had decided to continue the television emphasis they considered a key weapon during the presidential primaries.

Along with that emphasis, Klein said, will come a cutback in the round of personal appearances which has characterized past presidential campaigns. Klein said the Nixon forces realize that when the nominee is going to face a massive television audience, he must have time to rest and prepare.

"This time, there will be adequate preparation," Klein said.

That evidently is a lesson learned from the physically exhausting campaign Nixon ran eight years ago. The problem was evidenced most clearly when a tired and haggard Nixon faced John F. Kennedy in the first of their televised debates.

As for teamwork between the two GOP nominees, Klein said Nixon wants to fashion "the most closely coordinated dual campaign in history."

Klein said the staffs of the presidential and the vice presidential nominee will be tied closely together, and their travels—as well as the things they say on issues—will be carefully coordinated.

This, too, apparently stems from a lesson learned in the narrow defeat of 1960. Henry Cabot Lodge was the vice presidential nominee then, and he sometimes took an independent course.

Agnew participated in some of the campaign planning sessions Sunday and tape recorded a broadcast message to the citizens of Maryland, saying he has no intention of resigning as governor and will continue to make the final decisions on affairs of state.

Agnew scheduled a trip to San Francisco to confer with former Mayor George Christopher and to appear at receptions and a dinner.

Nixon is to remain here until next Sunday, then go home to New York City. Klein said Nixon would operate from his New York base until after Labor Day, making brief campaign trips.

Klein said Nixon will confer during the week with Republican leaders, possibly including California Gov. Ronald Reagan, a rival for the nomination.

Toledo Council OKs Gun Law

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — City Council today passed a gun control ordinance unanimously after tacking on an emergency clause, making the law effective immediately.

The measure will require payment of a $5 fee to receive an identification card. The card would be necessary for purchase of a gun.

Council also passed three other measures designed to implement the gun control law. Two provide for purchase of cameras to be used in taking pictures for the ID cards. The third would provide for hiring of seven new employees to handle paper work.

Salvage Crew Has Hopes Of Finding Ironclad Monitor

NORFOLK, Va. (AP) — While the proud and mighty battleship USS Monitor, will be found, raised, and exhibited to the public.

The 127-foot "cheesebox on a raft" is famous for three achievements: Saving the Union blockade from the ironclad threat of the Confederate ship Merrimack at the battle of Hampton Roads on Mar. 9, 1862; demonstrating the obsolescence of the wooden warship; and making the movable turret a prime feature of most warships.

The original Monitor, built by Swedish-born inventor John Ericson at the Greenpoint Navy Yard, Brooklyn, N.Y., in the first two months of 1862, was not a seaworthy vessel.

In the night of Dec. 30, 1862, she foundered in one of the frequent storms off Cape Hatteras — "graveyard of the Atlantic" — and sank with the loss of 4 officers and 12 men out of her crew of 63.

The location of the "tin can on a shingle" has been a mystery ever since. Accounts of her sinking place her location from 1 to 25 miles offshore.

Robert F. Marx, a professional treasure-diver, claimed to have found the Union ironclad in 1955 while diving in about 50 feet of water a mile offshore, but said he could not locate the ship on subsequent dives due to shifting of the sandy ocean bottom.

The group now exploring off Hatteras is a partnership between the state of North Carolina, which claims ownership under a 1967 law, and the North Carolina Tidewater Services, Inc., a salvage company.

5 Workers Killed Unloading Cargo From Fishing Boat

FORT MYERS, Fla. (AP) — Five men unloading a cargo of fish toppled one-by-one Sunday into the hold of their boat where they were found dead.

Lee County sheriff's investigator James Loeffler said, "We don't know what killed them or where it came from. They either got a whiff of a toxic gas or some sort of chemical poison."

Back from a successful trip, the crew of the 125-foot trawler Novelty and dockworkers were preparing to flood the ship's hold to enable huge pumps to pull out both water and fish.

"When the water was turned on," Loeffler said, "the men collapsed and fell into the hold."

The first man to react, Francis L. Winter, 53, of Punta Gorda, Fla., jumped through the hatch and reached the body when he, too, keeled over.

As he slumped into the hold, his brother, Joseph, 55, also of Punta Gorda, raced to the hatchway. He got his feet on the ladder and his hand on the rail when the poison hit him and he fell the rest of the way, Loeffler said.

"The other two men never left the deck," the investigator said. "They just looked into the hold and collapsed through the hatch."

He said a sixth man was felled by the incredibly fast-acting poison, but was rescued by the ship's one-armed cook, bombers flew 110 missions Sunday against enemy supply lines in North Vietnam's southern panhandle. The latter pilots reported destroying or damaging 42 trucks and 17 supply boats.

The B52 strikes along the frontier ranged from inside the northern half of the demilitarized zone about eight miles west-northwest of the Marine base at Con Thien to five miles inside North Vietnam.

Military spokesmen said the bombers attacked North Vietnamese troops believed preparing to infiltrate into South Vietnam's northernmost provinces. They also rained explosives on truck parks and on anti-aircraft and artillery emplacements posing a threat to American fighter-bombers and combat bases just below the demilitarized zone.

One mission struck at suspected enemy troop positions 12 miles west of Da Nang, near the spot where U.S. Marines fought a fierce close-range battle with about 100 North Vietnamese soldiers from dusk Saturday to Sunday morning.

Atty. Gen. Ramsey Clark announced the FBI arrested David R. Lagnado, 38, at the Minneapolis-St. Paul Metropolitan Airport Sunday morning and charged him with illegal interstate transportation of a device designed for wiretapping or eavesdropping.

The FBI accused Lagnado of carrying such a device, in the form of an attaché case containing a recording device, on a flight from Kennedy International Airport in New York City in violation of the law signed by President Johnson June 19.

Lagnado was taken before a U.S. commissioner. The maximum sentence under the provision involved is a $10,000 fine, five-year prison term or both.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Urban renewal projects may be speeded up an average four years under a provision of the new federal housing act that will permit neighborhoods to start work before all planning is completed, officials say.

They predict the start-to-finish time will be reduced to an average 8 years from 12 and say the provision will free billions of dollars of government money that before had to lay idle until full planning for projects was completed.

Youth Nabbed After Chase

A 100-mile per hour race down the wrong side of Main St. Saturday ended in the apprehension of a 15-year old escapee of Fairfield School for Boys.

Taken into custody by Pickaway County Sheriff Dwight Radcliff was Ronald Slover of Cleveland.

Slover had stolen a car belonging to Jeannie Young, Amanda, Saturday and was driving toward Cleveland when the sheriff's department was alerted of a suspicious person.

Sheriff Radcliff, driving an unmarked cruiser, approached the car as it was headed north on Route 56 about a mile from Circleville. The sheriff reported that he pulled into the passing lane beside the car and sounded his siren to signal Slover to the side of the road.

Instead of stopping, the escapee stepped on the gas, forced the Sheriff's car into a ditch, and began a race through the city that ended 10:30 a.m. when he made a wide left turn at Memorial Hall and struck a parked car there.

Slover jumped from his disabled vehicle, ran across the street and jumped over a fence. Sheriff's deputies drove around the block and caught the fugitive as he climbed over the other side of the fence.

Slover is being kept in custody by the Pickaway County Sheriff until Fairfield County deputies pick him up today.

Claim Egypt To Concede

NEW YORK (AP) — The New York Times said today that Egypt is reported ready to accept a Middle East settlement including substantial concessions to Israel.

The report, from "well informed Arab diplomats who are advisers of President Gamal Abdel Nasser," said the offer had been communicated privately to Israeli leaders.

The concessions included guaranteeing the passage of Israeli ships through the Strait of Tiran, waiving past demands for the repatriation of Arab refugees from Israel, internationalizing the Gaza Strip and demilitarizing the Sinai Peninsula.

The sources said Nasser, as an interim measure, would permit non-Israeli ships carrying Israeli cargoes to pass through the Suez Canal if Israeli troops evacuated a strip just beyond the canal's eastern bank.

4-Point Plan Urged by Stokes

CLEVELAND (AP) — A four-point program, including a massive federal investment in cities — "not spending" — was suggested today by Cleveland Mayor Carl B. Stokes.

He made the proposals in testifying before a regional hearing of the Democratic Party's platform committee for its National Convention opening Aug. 26 in Chicago.

Stokes also suggested a minimum annual wage, a program for development of land banks and federal legislation requiring the licensing and registration of guns.

Mississippi Demo Slate Is Challenged

JACKSON, Miss. (AP) — A "loyalist" delegation of 22 Negroes and 22 whites has been formed to challenge the seating of Mississippi's regular party delegation to the Democratic National Convention.

The loyalists are certain of the support of the party's three presidential hopefuls, two of whom sent representatives to the convention.

The issue of racial balance was vital in the selection of the members of the delegation, chosen Sunday at a state convention.

The challengers, calling themselves the Loyal Democrats of Mississippi, claim that the regular Democratic delegation denied the state's Negro population a fair representation, and that the regulars plan to reject the Democratic nominee in favor of Alabama's George C. Wallace, running as a third party candidate.

Henry County Youths Are Killed

NAPOLÉON, Ohio (AP) — Two Henry County youths were killed early today and four young persons were injured, one seriously, when the car in which they were riding ran off a curve in Ohio 115 and struck a tree one mile south of Holgate.

The victims, both passengers, were David Reibesehl, 19, and Ruben Urdigles, 18, both of Holgate. The driver of the car, Eustacio Arroyo, 21, Holgate, was in serious condition with a skull fracture.

The other passengers were not seriously injured.

Jackie Robinson Urges Negro Break with GOP

NEW YORK (AP) — Jackie Robinson, whittling as an aide to Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, says he'll back any Democrat against Richard M. Nixon. His turnabout highlights the expressed unhappiness of some negro Republicans with the GOP ticket.

Robinson, 49, who broke the color line in major league baseball, said Sunday that Nixon heads a ticket that is "racist in nature" and that the former vice president "has prostituted himself and sold himself out to the bigots in the South."

By selecting Maryland Gov. Spiro T. Agnew as his running mate, Robinson said, Nixon has handed over control of the party to the Southerners.

The former Brooklyn Dodgers great, who was elected to baseball's Hall of Fame in 1962, declared, "I intend... to support the Democratic nominee, and pray to God that every black man and every minority in this country does the same thing," adding:

"I'm a black man first, and American second and then I will support a political party third." He appeared on the NBC-TV program, "Searchlight."

Biafra Asks Selassie Aid

ADDIS ABABA, Ethiopia (AP) — Biafra's chief delegate to the civil war peace talks asked Emperor Haile Selassie today to get the Nigerian government to stop firing on Red Cross mercy flights to starving Biafra.

Prof. Eni Njoku, Biafra's chief representative at the peace talks here, told the emperor that British-made weapons were used against the planes delivering food and medical supplies to his besieged region.

The International Red Cross announced Saturday it has suspended relief flights to Biafra because one of its planes was fired at and another forced to turn back by heavy ground fire. Neither plane, chartered from a Swiss company, was hit.

Haile Selassie conferred with Njoku for 90 minutes, the same amount of time he had allotted for a private talk Saturday with Nigeria's chief delegate, Chier Anthony Enahoro.

Johnson Ready For More Tests

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — President Johnson entered Brooke Army Medical Center today for further tests to learn the extent of a chronic intestinal disorder.

The President traveled to the medical center by helicopter from the LBJ Ranch, a 35-minute trip.

Johnson disclosed Thursday, after two trips to Brooke for a checkup, that he is afflicted with diverticulosis, a condition that produces small pouches on the inner lining of the large intestine.

Wallace Hearings Set in Dayton

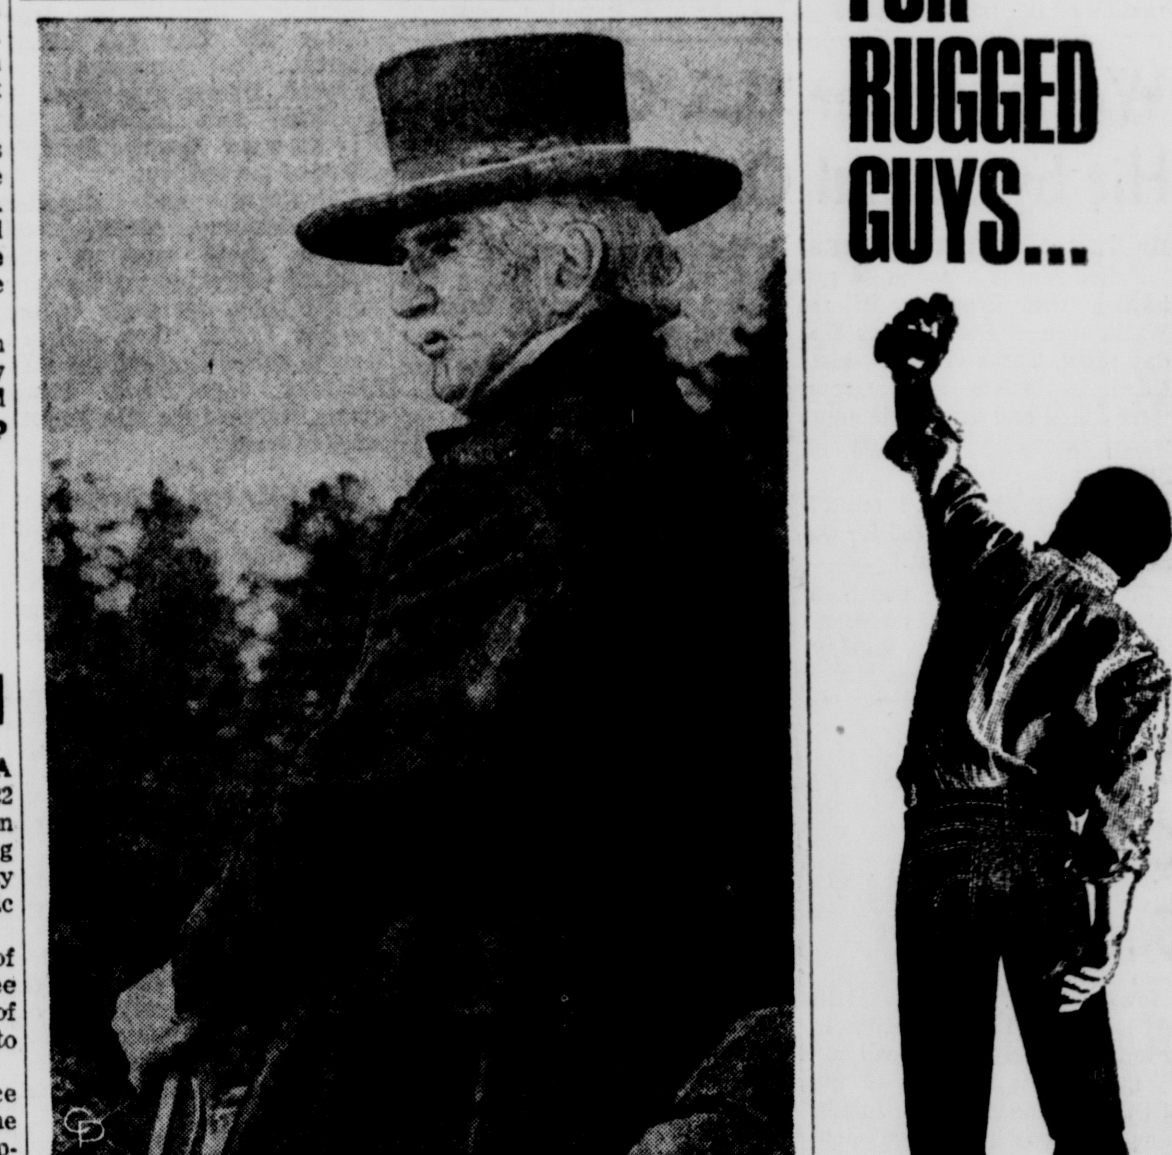

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — The first of two hearings aimed at opening up a spot on Ohio's November election ballot for the Socialist Labor Party and George Wallace's American Independent Party was set to begin here at 2 p.m. today.

Both the SLP and the AIP have filed suits in federal court challenging the constitutionality of Ohio's stiff law requiring a third party to collect 433,100 signatures to qualify for the ballot.

Indiana Youth Killed near Celina

CELINA, Ohio (AP) — A 19-year-old Hagerstown, Ind., youth died early today after being struck by a car on U.S. 127 about seven miles south of Celina, Mercer County.

Deputies said the driver of the car, Marilyn Kramer, 19, Versailles, told them she saw the victim, Steven M. Belt, lying in the road, but could not miss him.

NEVER IN THE WORLD would you guess who this is. It's Sen. Wayne Morse, sitting his horse for his half-minute role in a movie being made near Baker, Ore. The Oregon senator yells, "There's a stage coach a-comin'," and that's about it.

Dissatisfaction with his own party was expressed by one Negro delegate to the GOP convention in Miami Beach, Fla., who commented at a private meeting, "The black voter has generally been disenchanted with the Republican party for so long that, in order for the GOP to recapture any significant numbers of blacks, they will have to offer far more than they have to date."

Negro Republican resentment against the GOP ticket some times centered about the selection of Agnew.

William O. Walker, an alternate delegate from Cleveland, said of Agnew: "The thing that disturbs me is how his selection was brought about. This was done by Nixon selling out to South Carolina Sen. Strom Thurmond."

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
WASHINGTON (AP) — A Hewlett, N.Y., man has become the first person to be arrested under the wiretapping and eavesdropping provisions of the 1968 Omnibus Crime Control and Safe Streets Act.

Atty. Gen. Ramsey Clark announced the FBI arrested David R. Lagnado, 38, at the Minneapolis-St. Paul Metropolitan Airport Sunday morning and charged him with illegal interstate transportation of a device designed for wiretapping or eavesdropping.

The FBI accused Lagnado of carrying such a device, in the form of an attaché case containing a recording device, on a flight from Kennedy International Airport in New York City in violation of the law signed by President Johnson June 19.

Lagnado was taken before a U.S. commissioner. The maximum sentence under the provision involved is a $10,000 fine, five-year prison term or both.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Urban renewal projects may be speeded up an average four years under a provision of the new federal housing act that will permit neighborhoods to start work before all planning is completed, officials say.

They predict the start-to-finish time will be reduced to an average 8 years from 12 and say the provision will free billions of dollars of government money that before had to lay idle until full planning for projects was completed.

Under the new Neighborhood Development program, some execution funds will be available in addition to planning money the first year. Money is to be available in succeeding years for more work as it becomes planned and ready to go.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Two State Prison guards held by rebellious inmates were released unharmed Sunday after a newsman listened to prisoner grievances.

Two ringleaders of the six-hour disturbance were placed in maximum security cells after the meeting. The newsman, Al Spiers of Michigan City, listened with Warden Ward Lane and Anthony Kuharich, state correction commissioner, for more than an hour to various complaints from some 20 prisoners.

Spiers said the majority of the 150 inmates in the block appeared unconcerned although "about two dozen leaned over the railings of catwalks to see and hear what was going on."

The guards, Fred Parker, 25 of Michigan City, and Frank Dunn, 27, of Portage, Ind., told officials they were not abused or threatened. Spiers left the cellblock soon after the guards.

Lane identified the ringleaders as William Francis Brown, 31, and James Lee Collins, 29, who forced the guards into top tier cells in a four-tier cellhouse adjoining the prison's administration building.

Brown and Collins were armed with makeshift knives, officials said. Brown is serving a 1-10 year sentence for assault with intent to commit a felony. Collins was sentenced to life as an accessory after the fact of murder.

At word of the guards' seizure a 50-man Indiana state police riot squad was sent to the prison. With a 22-man prison riot squad it stood by outside the 30-foot-high walls while Kuharich and Lane spent several hours talking with the prisoners outside the cellhouse door.

McGovern Gains Little Demo Support

WASHINGTON (AP) — Net gain for Sen. George S. McGovern after two days in the Democratic presidential race appears to be endorsement by several former Kennedy aides, approving nods from some former Kennedy supporters and two delegate votes.

But, the South Dakota said Sunday, he has at least a "fighting chance" to beat out the other two announced McCarthy and Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey.

McGovern commented on a radio-television program 24 hours after he entered the race. He intends to use the medium as a chief vehicle for his 11th hour drive before the Democratic National Convention opening in Chicago two weeks from today.

His schedule included three tentative television taping or live sessions today and another Tuesday.

McGovern, a 46-year-old former college professor with a record of winning uphill fights, invoked the name of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy numerous times when he formally announced Saturday.

He launched his candidacy in the Caucus Room of the old Senate Office Building where both Robert and John Kennedy launched theirs.

McGovern said he would campaign on a Kennedy-style get-out-of-Vietnam plank.

The issue of racial balance was vital in the selection of the members of the delegation, chosen Sunday at a state convention.

The challengers, calling themselves the Loyal Democrats of Mississippi, claim that the regular Democratic delegation denied the state's Negro population a fair representation, and that the regular plan to reject the Democratic nominee in favor of Alabama's George C. Wallace, running as a third party candidate.

Supermarket chains sometimes sell inferior food in poor neighborhoods—and there is inconclusive evidence worth further study that they may charge higher prices for it, says a House Government Operations Committee report. But 11 dissenting committee Republicans say there is too little evidence to justify the report's conclusions.

Youth Nabbed After Chase

A 100-mile per hour race down the wrong side of Main St. Saturday ended in the apprehension of a 15-year old escapee of Fairfield School for Boys.

Taken into custody by Pickaway County Sheriff Dwight Radcliff was Ronald Slover of Cleveland.

Slover had stolen a car belonging to Jeannie Young, Amanda, Saturday and was driving toward Cleveland when the sheriff's department was alerted of a suspicious person.

Sheriff Radcliff, driving an unmarked cruiser, approached the car as it was headed north on Route 56 about a mile from Circleville. The sheriff reported that he pulled into the passing lane beside the car and sounded his siren to signal Slover to the side of the road.

Instead of stopping, the escapee stepped on the gas, forced the Sheriff's car into a ditch, and began a race through the city that ended 10:30 a.m. when he made a wide left turn at Memorial Hall and struck a parked car there.

Slover jumped from his disabled vehicle, ran across the street and jumped over a fence. Sheriff's deputies drove around the block and caught the fugitive as he climbed over the other side of the fence.

Slover is being kept in custody by the Pickaway County Sheriff until Fairfield County deputies pick him up today.

Jackie Robinson Urges Negro Break with GOP

NEW YORK (AP) — Jackie Robinson, whittling an aide to Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, says he'll back any Democrat against Richard M. Nixon. His turnabout highlights the expressed unhappiness of some Negro Republicans with the GOP ticket.

Robinson, 49, who broke the color line in major league baseball, said Sunday that Nixon heads a ticket that is "racist in nature" and that the former vice president "has prostituted himself and sold himself out to the bigots in the South."

By selecting Maryland Gov. Spiro T. Agnew as his running mate, Robinson said, Nixon has handed over control of the party to the Southerners.

The former Brooklyn Dodgers great, who was elected to base ball's Hall of Fame in 1962, declared, "I intend... to support the Democratic nominee, and pray to God that every black man and every minority in this country does the same thing," adding:

"I'm a black man first, and American second and then I will support a political party third." He appeared on the NBC-TV program, "Searchlight."

Biafra Asks Selassie Aid

ADDIS ABABA, Ethiopia (AP) — Biafra's chief delegate to the civil war peace talks asked Emperor Haile Selassie today to get the Nigerian government to stop firing on Red Cross mercy flights to starving Biafra.

Prof. Eni Njoku, Biafra's chief representative at the peace talks here, told the emperor that British-made weapons were used against the planes delivering food and medical supplies to his besieged region.

The International Red Cross announced Saturday it has suspended relief flights to Biafra because one of its planes was fired at and another forced to turn back by heavy ground fire. Neither plane, chartered from a Swiss company, was hit.

Haile Selassie conferred with Njoku for 90 minutes, the same amount of time he had allotted for a private talk Saturday with Nigeria's chief delegate, Chier Anthony Enahoro.

Johnson Ready For More Tests

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — President Johnson entered Brooke Army Medical Center today for further tests to learn the extent of a chronic intestinal disorder.

The President traveled to the medical center by helicopter from the LBJ Ranch, a 35-minute trip.

Johnson disclosed Thursday, after two trips to Brooke for a checkup, that he is afflicted with diverticulosis, a condition that produces small pouches on the inner lining of the large intestine.

Wallace Hearings Set in Dayton

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — The first of two hearings aimed at opening up a spot on Ohio's November election ballot for the Socialist Labor Party and George Wallace's American Independent Party was set to begin here at 2 p.m. today.

Both the SLP and the AIP have filed suits in federal court challenging the constitutionality of Ohio's stiff law requiring a third party to collect 433,100 signatures to qualify for the ballot.

Grain Diversion Plan Explained

Wheat producers can take part in the 1969 wheat program by planting within their allotments and maintaining in conservation use the conserving base acres plus an acreage equal to 15 percent of the 1969 farm allotment. This 15 percent represents the difference, nationally, between the 1968 allotment and smaller 1969 allotment.

This information was released today by Galen D. Mowery, chairman, Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation National Committee.

No diversion payment will be available for this minimum diversion, but it will meet the wheat program's eligibility requirements for wheat price support loans or purchases and for wheat marketing certificates.

Farmers who wish also to earn wheat diversion payments will divert additional acreage below the 1969 farm allotment.

The maximum additional acreage which may be diverted is the larger of 50 per cent of the effective 1969 farm allotment, or the difference between 25 acres and the minimum required diversion, but not to exceed the farm allotment.

The payment rate per acre for additional diversion will be 50 per cent of the 1969 loan rate for wheat multiplied by the projected wheat yield for the farm.

A 15 per cent qualifying diversion of the base also applies in cases where a barley or oats-rye farm base is requested for purposes of wheat substitution under the 1969 wheat program. However, this 15 per cent of the approved base is subtracted from the base when determining the permitted acreage on which wheat may be substituted. No diversion payment is authorized for this acreage diverted from oats-rye or barley.

A farmer substituting wheat for oats-rye or barley would lose wheat program benefits unless he participates fully in the feed grain program by not planting corn and grain sorghum in excess of the feed grain permitted acreage if his farm has a feed grain base, or produces no corn or grain sorghum if the farm has no feed grain base.

Text Books Criticized

CLEVELAND (AP)—A subcommittee studying integrated textbooks in Cleveland schools Sunday expressed disapproval of a list of text books provided by the Cleveland Board of Education.

"I had hoped I could say that the board had made the first step and provided a list of beautiful, integrated texts," Donald McBride told a subcommittee meeting. "But in fact the books on the list are garbage."

McBride is chairman of the subcommittee, a unit of the Ohio Ad Hoc Committee for Quality Integrated Education, established last November by the federal Civil Rights Commission.

McBride said it was important blacks should not be treated as a separate entity within the books but should be mentioned throughout them wherever the achievements of blacks are relevant.

Logan Elm Band Meeting Called

Meeting will end at 11 a.m. Freshmen joining the band are asked to remain until noon for a special briefing. No instruments are needed for this meeting.

Regular rehearsals will be held from 9:30 a.m. until noon Aug. 21 through 23 and Aug. 26 through Aug. 30.

Haircut Brings Case Dismissal

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—When a 17-year-old boy appeared before Justice of the Peace Tommy Naylor to learn his penalty for illegal possession of alcohol by a minor, Naylor told him the fine would be $40—unless the youth returned in a short time with shorn locks. In that event the fine would be $10.

"He had long hair, all the way to his shoulders," Naylor said. "The boy hurried away with his father and came back in a bit with shorter hair."

"He was a real handsome boy," Naylor said. "He looked so nice and his attitude was so friendly that I just dismissed the case."

CAMPERS CONVENE — National Campers and Hikers Assn. held a four day conclave at DuQuoin, Ill. recently. The Southern Illinois town is the home of the famed Hambletonian.

Camper Conclave Held in Illinois

By GROVER BRINKMAN
Central Press Association
Correspondent

DUQUOIN, Ill. —How big is camping in America as of today? According to Bill Miller, registration chairman for the National Campers and Hikers Association, actual campsite registrations totalled nearly 5,000 on the opening day of a four-day conclave at this southern Illinois town, home of the famed Hambletonian sulky race.

Figuring four persons per unit, and adding many latecomers, the group was estimated at above 20,000. They were bedded down snugly on the 1,400 acre park of the DuQuoin state fairgrounds without incident.

It rained the first day. It rained and stormed the second day. But this did not dampen the enthusiasm of these dedicated road gypsies here for the ninth annual convention of the association.

Red tents, blue and green tents, camping trailers, travel trailers, motor homes, piggybacks and improvisations of every kind — all were part of the giant conclave that moved into the fairgrounds, causing a kingsized traffic jam.

A total of 45 of the 50 states and Canada were represented. The teens were there, too, almost 3,000 in number, plus over 4,000 pre-teens, and babies as young as a two-week-old child from Pennsylvania. On the longevity side, a 92-year-old outdoorsman from Canada won oldest honors. One family was represented by four generations of campers. A unique visitor was Ed Montgomery, a Green Beret soldier on leave from Vietnam, who joined his family here.

Illinois led the camping group with 1,173 families registered; Pennsylvania was next with 603; Ohio 514, Indiana 457, Kansas 389, Michigan 320, to name just a few. Largest family was that of Joseph Doope, his wife and nine children from Cincinnati.

Actual staking out of the 5,000 25 by 40 campsites for each reservation was begun last February. To accommodate the huge crowd, an "instant city" was built, which contained a supermarket, pharmacy, stores and shops. Tank trucks toured the grounds, to give the campers drinking water.

Gov. Samuel H. Shapiro told the campers about the two years of preparation for the meeting, and urged them to visit the state's 41 parks on their return home.

The NCHA has selected Eutawville, S.C., for its 1969 convention. DuQuoin, the current host town, with its population of 6,558, left a population explosion that taxed its parking facilities, filled its stores, and jammed its sidewalks.

From NCHA statistics, it is figured that each family at the DuQuoin convention has between $500 and $5,000 invested in equipment. The investment potential and the money spent at a convention of this kind is astronomical.

One thing was soon apparent to the visitor: this was a giant conclave of friendly people, obeying the laws to the letter, being neighborly and helpful, having fun in the process. There was no vandalism on the part of the teens. There was not liquor. This great throng was an American image in true perspective.

Draft Laws Explained

EDITOR'S NOTE: In an effort to create a greater public understanding of the laws and regulations governing the induction of personnel into the Armed Forces, the Selective Service System has prepared a series of pertinent questions and corresponding responses concerning provision of the draft law. Here is another of the series.

Q: My high school counselor told me that my age of liability for military service is 18 1/2 through 25. Yesterday my neighbor told me that if I accepted a deferment as a student my age of liability would be extended to age 35. Is this true?

A: Yes. If you request and are granted a II-S student deferment your liability is extended to age 35.

Q: I have a II-A classification. How long is my deferment good for?

A: Selective Service regulations state that a Class II-A deferment shall be for a period of one year or less. If there is a change in the registrant's status during the period of deferment in Class II-A, his classification shall be reopened and considered anew.

Q: I am entering college this fall. What is the minimum number of hours I will have to carry in order to receive a II-S classification?

A: A student pursuing a four-year course of instruction must have earned 25 per cent of the credits required for his baccalaureate degree at the end of his first academic year, 50 per cent at the end of his second academic year and 75 per cent at the end of his third academic year to qualify for a II-S deferment. It should be noted, however, that you must make a written request for the deferment by completion of Selective Service System Form 104 (which is available at any local board of the System) or by letter and have your school forward a Selective Service System Form 109, which certifies your status, to your local board.

Syrian Pilots Fly to Israel

TEL AVIV (AP)—Two Syrian Air Force pilots flew their MIG17 jet planes across the frontier today and gave themselves up at an air base in northern Israel, the Israeli army announced.

An army spokesman said the planes and the pilots were in good condition.

One of the pilots was a captain, the other a lieutenant, the army said.

In 1966, an Iraqi air force pilot defected to Israel in a MIG21 jet. It was believed at the time it was the first MIG21 to fall into western hands in such perfect condition.

No further details were immediately available on the Syrian pilots.

Expand Cemetery At St. Louis

ST. LOUIS (AP)—The Jefferson Barracks National Cemetery, with about 45,000 graves, has begun an expansion program "to keep ahead of demands."

"We still have about 4,000 grave sites," said William Boyer, superintendent, but burials are running about 1,800 a year.

The cemetery was started in 1837 and became a federal property in 1866.

Humphrey Campaign Chief Plans Columbus Meet Today

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Hubert H. Humphrey's top campaign strategist comes to town today in hopes of solidifying the fluid status of Ohio's delegation to the Democratic National Convention.

Larence F. O'Brien, national campaign coordinator of United Democrats for Humphrey, planned a late afternoon meeting with the delegation.

The group was expected to caucus later to take a presidential preference poll.

"The Ohio delegation has the opportunity to play a very significant role at the Chicago convention," O'Brien reported from his office in Washington Sunday night.

Backers of the vice president's bid for the presidency insisted, however, that no pressure would be applied to the 128 member delegation.

"I personally feel it is appropriate at this time for the Ohio delegates to express their preference," said Humphrey's Ohio campaign manager, Frazier Reams Jr.

But Sen. Stephen Young, D-Ohio, was not immediately prepared to throw his support to Humphrey.

Contacted at his residence in Washington Sunday night, Young said:

"I don't know whether there will be any straw vote taken but I would vote to stay uncommitted."

There are a half-dozen different views on the status of the delegation but this appears to be the most common:

Young still is technically

Ohio's favorite son candidate although the delegation remains uncommitted. Young earlier was allowed to take the favorite son role providing that he remained pledged to President Johnson. But when the President withdrew from the race, the delegation automatically became uncommitted.

Cash Deposited In Safe Place

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Recently E. R. Waltman brought home $200 cash and hid it in the pocket of an old topcoat.

A few days later, his wife donated the coat to a charitable organization, in fact that Waltman didn't discover until several days later.

He rushed down to the organization's headquarters, explained his plight, and with the help of workers began rummaging through 22 crates of used clothing. Waltman found his coat, and the cash, in the second crate.

Grain Diversion Plan Explained

Wheat producers can take part in the 1969 wheat program by planting within their allotments and maintaining in conservation use the conserving base acres plus an acreage equal to 15 percent of the 1969 farm allotment. This 15 percent represents the difference, nationally, between the 1968 allotment and smaller 1969 allotment.

This information was released today by Galen D. Mowery, chairman, Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee.

No diversion payment will be available for this minimum diversion, but it will meet the wheat program's eligibility requirements for wheat price-support loans or purchases and for wheat marketing certificates.

Farmers who wish also to earn wheat diversion payments will divert additional acreage below the 1969 farm allotment.

The maximum additional acreage which may be diverted is the larger of 50 per cent of the effective 1969 farm allotment, or the difference between 25 acres and the minimum required diversion, but not to exceed the farm allotment.

The payment rate per acre for additional diversion will be 50 per cent of the 1969 loan rate for wheat multiplied by the projected wheat yield for the farm.

A 15 per cent qualifying diversion of the base also applies in cases where a barley or oats-rye farm base is requested for purposes of wheat substitution under the 1969 wheat program. However, this 15 per cent of the approved base is subtracted from the base when determining the permitted acreage on which wheat may be substituted. No diversion payment is authorized for this acreage diverted from oats-rye or barley.

A farmer substituting wheat for oats-rye or barley would lose wheat program benefits unless he participates fully in the feed grain program by not planting corn and grain sorghum in excess of the feed grain permitted acreage if his farm has a feed grain base, or produces no corn or grain sorghum if the farm has no feed grain base.

Text Books Criticized

CLEVELAND (AP)—A subcommittee studying integrated textbooks in Cleveland schools Sunday expressed disapproval of a list of text books provided by the Cleveland Board of Education.

"I had hoped I could say that the board had made the first step and provided a list of beautiful, integrated texts," Donald McBride told a subcommittee meeting. "But in fact the books on the list are garbage."

McBride is chairman of the subcommittee, a unit of the Ohio Ad Hoc Committee for Quality Integrated Education, established last November by the federal Civil Rights Commission.

McBride said it was important blacks should not be treated as a separate entity within the books but should be mentioned throughout them wherever the achievements of blacks are relevant.

Logan Elm High School music director John M. Ridzon announces a general meeting of all marching band members 10 a.m. Wednesday at the high school.

Meeting will end at 11 a.m. Freshmen joining the band are asked to remain until noon for a special briefing. No instruments are needed for this meeting.

Regular rehearsals will be held from 9:30 a.m. until noon Aug. 21 through 23 and Aug. 26 through Aug. 30.

Haircut Brings Case Dismissal

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—When a 17-year-old boy appeared before Justice of the Peace Tommy Naylor to learn his penalty for illegal possession of alcohol by a minor, Naylor told him the youth returned in a short time with shorn locks. In that event the fine would be $10.

"He had long hair, all the way to his shoulders," Naylor said. The boy hurried away with his father and came back in a bit with shorter hair.

"He was a real handsome boy," Naylor said. "He looked so nice and his attitude was so friendly that I just dismissed the case."

CAMPERS CONVENE — National Campers and Hikers Assn. held a four day conclave at DuQuoin, Ill. recently. The Southern Illinois town is the home of the famed Hambletonian.

Camper Conclave Held in Illinois

By GROVER BRINKMAN

DUQUOIN, Ill. —How big is camping in America as of today? According to Bill Miller, registration chairman for the National Campers and Hikers Association, actual campsite registrations totalled nearly 5,000 on the opening day of a four-day conclave at this southern Illinois town, home of the famed Hambletonian sulky race.

Figuring four persons per unit, and adding many latecomers, the group was estimated at above 20,000. They were bedded down snugly on the 1,400 acre park of the DuQuoin state fairgrounds without incident.

It rained the first day. It rained and stormed the second day. But this did not dampen the enthusiasm of these dedicated road gypsies here for the ninth annual convention of the association.

Red tents, blue and green tents, camping trailers, travel trailers, motor homes, piggybacks and improvisations of every kind — all were part of the giant conclave that moved into the fairgrounds, causing a kingsized traffic jam.

A total of 45 of the 50 states and Canada were represented. The teens were there, too, almost 3,000 in number, plus over 4,000 pre-teens, and babies as young as a two-week-old child from Pennsylvania. On the longevity side, a 92-year-old outdoorsman from Canada won oldest honors. One family was represented by four generations of campers. A unique visitor was Ed Montgomery, a Green Beret soldier on leave from Vietnam, who joined his family here.

Illinois led the camping group with 1,173 families registered; Pennsylvania was next with 603; Ohio 514, Indiana 457, Kansas 389, Michigan 320, to name just a few. Largest family was that of Joseph Doope, his

Most Sophisticated Society Is Confused

DE KALB, Ill. (AP) — The humanistic attitude must be restored if this country is to continue on the "road to excellence."

This is the view of Dr. Percy Julian, chemist and founder of the Julian Research Institute, Chicago. He expressed his ideas during a lecture at the Northern Illinois University campus.

He said today's educators are "the most sophisticated but... the most confused society of scholars ever to inhabit the earth."

He called on the nation's educators to provide a new definition of morality and restore humanism in man's search for truth and knowledge.

He said that unless educators can overcome the present trend toward the emphasis on development of marketable skills, "it is doubtful our educational system can develop in abundance those scholars who can hear and feel the throbbing heart of men."

wife and nine children from Cincinnati.

Actual staking out of the 5,000 25 by 40 campsites for each reservation was begun last February. To accommodate the huge crowd, an "instant city" was built, which contained a supermarket, pharmacy, stores and shops. Tank trucks toured the grounds, to give the campers drinking water.

Gov. Samuel H. Shapiro told the campers about the two years of preparation for the meeting, and urged them to visit the state's 41 parks on their return home.

The NCHA has selected Eutawville, S.C., for its 1969 convention. DuQuoin, the current host town, with its population of 6,558, left a population explosion that taxed its parking facilities, filled its stores, and jammed its sidewalks.

From NCHA statistics, it is figured that each family at the DuQuoin convention has between $500 and $5,000 invested in equipment. The investment potential and the money spent at a convention of this kind is astronomical.

One thing was soon apparent to the visitor: this was a giant conclave of friendly people, obeying the laws to the letter, being neighborly and helpful, having fun in the process. There was no vandalism on the part of the teens. There was not liquor. This great throng was an American image in true perspective.

Local Artist Submits Winning Art

J.D. Reichelderfer of Route 3, received 2nd honorable mention in the Professional Arts Division of the Ohio State Fair. He is employed as advertising designer on the creative design staff of Warner Simpson Co., Columbus.

Reichelderfer's entry was an oil abstract titled, "Untitled Portrait." It was one of 194 paintings accepted for competition in this division.

Robert Frazier of Pittsburgh Art Institute was the juror. Announcement of award winners will be made at the preview reception on Wednesday, Aug. 21, at the James M. Cox Center where entries will be exhibited.

Draft Laws Explained

EDITOR'S NOTE: In an effort to create a greater public understanding of the laws and regulations governing the induction of personnel into the Armed Forces, the Selective Service System has prepared a series of pertinent questions and corresponding responses concerning provision of the draft law. Here is another of the series.

Q.: My High School counselor told me that my age of liability for military service is 18½ through 25. Yesterday my neighbor told me that if I accepted a deferment as a student my age of liability would be extended to age 35. Is this true?

A.: Yes. If you request and are granted a II-S student deferment your liability is extended to age 35.

Q.: I have a II-A classification. How long is my deferment good for?

A.: Selective Service regulations state that a Class II-A deferment shall be for a period of one year or less. If there is a change in the registrant's status during the period of deferment in Class II-A, his classification shall be reopened and considered anew.

Q.: I am entering college this fall. What is the minimum number of hours I will have to carry in order to receive a II-S classification?

A.: A student pursuing a four-year course of instruction must have earned 25 per cent of the credits required for his baccalaureate degree at the end of his first academic year, 50 per cent at the end of his second academic year and 75 per cent at the end of his third academic year to qualify for a II-S deferment. It should be noted, however, that you must make a written request for the deferment by completion of Selective Service System Form 104 (which is available at any local board of the System) or by letter and have your school forward a Selective Service System Form 109, which certifies your status, to your local board.

Syrian Pilots Fly to Israel

TEL AVIV (AP)—Two Syrian Air Force pilots flew their MIG17 jet planes across the frontier today and gave themselves up at an air base in northern Israel, the Israeli army announced.

An army spokesman said the planes and the pilots were in good condition.

One of the pilots was a captain, the other a lieutenant, the army said. In 1966, an Iraqi air force pilot defected to Israel in a MIG21 jet. It was believed at the time it was the first MIG21 to fall into western hands in such perfect condition.

No further details were immediately available on the Syrian pilots.

Expand Cemetery At St. Louis

ST. LOUIS (AP) — The Jefferson Barracks National Cemetery, with about 45,000 graves, has begun an expansion program "to keep ahead of demands."

Pickaway Grange Report

POMONA GRANGE

With Dorsey Bumgarner presiding, the evening Summer Session of Pomona Grange was held Friday at the Grange Building. Mrs. Harry Speakman served as piano accompanist.

Activity and statistical reports were given from subordinate granges.

For youth, Paul Dunkle announced that Patricia Schleich would enter the talent contest at Ohio State Fair on Aug. 24th. The Prince and Princess contest would be held Aug. 31 at Scioto Valley Grange Hall with each subordinate grange invited to compete and that the next meeting would be Sept. 2 at the home of Eddie Crites.

The finance report of Pomona Building Fund, given by John Dowler, revealed a satisfactory balance due to varied cooperation by subordinate and Pomona membership.

THE secretary, Mrs. Dorsey Bumgarner, read thank you communications from Beatrice Cleveland, International Farm Youth Exchange leader at State Dept. of Agriculture for generous contribution to the Exchange fund; and Claude Chilcote for aid to the Laurelville disaster fund. Also read was a message urging legislative action by resolution concerning problems and ventures which Grangers should study and support or oppose.

By ballot the following were elected for a two-year administration: Dorsey Bumgarner, Master; Hoyt Timmons, Overseer; Mrs. Leora Sayre, Lecturer; Harold Fisher, Steward; Harold Furniss, Assistant Steward; Mrs. Homer Reber, Chaplain; Mrs. Dorsey Bumgarner, Secretary; Wayne Luckhart, Treasurer; Harry Speakman, Gatekeeper; Mrs. Randolph Wolfe, Pomona; Mrs. Francine Cromley, Ceres; Paul Dawson, Flora; Barbara McKenzie, Lady Assistant Steward. Ralph Fisher was elected for a three-year term on the executive committee.

Mrs. Wayne Luckhart, Pomona Home Economics Chairman announced the following placements in competition by first place representation from subordinate granges:

SEVEN layer cookies — Mrs. Jessie Buskirk placed first, Mrs. Winfred Bidwell, second and John Dowler, third. The Junior entry by Dawn Bidwell was recognized as first place. In the sewing category Mrs. Judson Boughner rated first and Mrs. Bidwell second place for Seniors, and Joy Bidwell first for Juniors.

The theme for the program as arranged by the lecturer, Leora Sayre, was "The Worth of An Individual." A special emphasis was given by Mrs. Cromley with "Be the Best of Whatever You Are" and Mrs. Ernestine Dudleson with "Be Proud of The Things You Are." All present shared in explaining and defining these devices in measuring human worth: money, encyclopedia, scales and tape measure, and Christian love.

Members from the Sheltered Workshop shared in the demonstration of worth. The following vocal numbers were presented by Jim Davis, Carl Burgoon, Bob Brooks, Ronald Dimock and Bill Tootle: "You Are My Sunshine," "Love Me Tender" and "How Great Thou Art." A special rhythm pantomime was given by Carl Burgoon.

Donald Hough, supervisor of the workshop as administered by Pickaway County Program for Retarded, gave an illustrated talk concerning purposes and policies exercised to find and train abilities for meaningful rewards for present and future — social, emotional, physical and financial.

Members of Scioto Valley Grange cooperated in the concluding social fellowship which was centered by cake, ice cream, assorted nuts and iced tea.

S. Bloomfield Council Seeks Planning Funds

South Bloomfield village council met in regular session recently to request advance planning money from Franklin County, to accept a cut in gas rates by Columbia Gas and to conclude various housekeeping matters.

Village Attorney David Kraft was ordered to present an application for advanced planning money for a water and sewage project to the Franklin County Planning Commission.

Columbia Gas of Ohio announced that the price of gas would be decreased 75 cents per 1,000 cubic feet of gas beginning Sept. 1, 1968.

A motion to purchase a $5,000 certificate of deposit from Ashville Bank was made and accepted.

Roxey and Kenneth McDaniel presented the terms under which they will build streets and roads in their new subdivision.

The problem of insects in the village was discussed and the council voted to have the area "fogged."

Bills of $1,122.29 were ordered paid by the council.

Gasoline Victory

The fight waged by a New Jersey gasoline retailer against giveaway gimmicks has been won — at least as long as a state Superior Court ruling withstands possible appeals by the oil companies which reap most of the awards.

Superior Court Judge Mintz had to look no further than New Jersey's motor vehicle tax law for authority to rule out the giveaways as "games of chance."

The "no-purchase-necessary" clause at the gasoline stations was not sufficient cause to shield the various games from the law, Judge Mintz ruled.

The decision is a limited victory for Nicholas Del Spina and for the gasoline retailer associations which have supported him. The real winner is, or should be, the customer, whose extra penny or two a gallon paid for the prizes which seldom came up.

In his testimony, Mr. Del Spina said when the giveaways were introduced gasoline which had sold for 31.9 cents a gallon went up to 33.9 cents at 85 percent of the stations which handled the tickets.

A Census Test

Trenton, N. J., will be the site of a "dress rehearsal" for the 1970 federal census. Because of its ethnic and income balance, the city will be used to test a new method designed to correct deficiencies in the 1960 census, in which large numbers of slum residents went uncanceled.

As a prelude, Trenton's anti-poverty agency has launched a program to explain to the slum resident the importance of properly responding to the census.

Such a procedure could well be followed in all urban areas in view of the fact that federal aid allotments to municipalities are based on the figures ultimately reported.

When the trial-run count begins in September, door-to-door enumerators will be replaced by mailed questionnaires in low-income areas. Enumerators will call only if no response is received.

It is possible the mail method will prove more effective in reaching those inclined to secrecy when the census taker calls.

A drastic reduction in the number of questions could elicit even more cooperation and a more accurate count.

Preventing Hijackings

The aviation industry is casting about for some method of preventing airplane hijackings, but isn't making much progress. In a mood of desperation, pilots have been briefed on landing instructions at Havana Airport.

The problem is a serious one. Recently there were two hijackings within 48 hours, and airlines have decided that because of the safety aspects involved, it is nearly impossible to keep a hijacker from taking over a plane.

The Federal Aviation Administration's ruling that cockpit doors must be kept closed and locked is worthless. A gunman need only threaten hostesses or passengers, or he can simply threaten to depressurize the cabin by shooting a hole in a window.

If there is an answer, it probably will have to be some kind of x-ray or electronic device which will detect weapons in luggage and on passengers.

This has been suggested by the pilot of a recently commandeered airliner. Maybe it would work.

THE GILBERT MILLERS have open house every New Year's Eve at which virtually everybody who is anybody in New York drops in during the evening. At the height of one of these

"dos" a lady caught Mrs. Miller's ear to whisper, "That distinguished man over there seems to speak Greek rather fluently." "Why shouldn't he?" responded Mrs. Miller. "He's the King of Greece."

An elderly sninner renounced the world and sought sanctuary at a monastery, though he was warned by the Master of Novices he couldn't speak for five years—and then would be permitted only two words. At the end of the five years he appeared before the Master and spoke his two words: "Hard beds!" Another five years drifted by, and now his two words were "Terrible food." At the end of the third five-year period, he announced, "I quit." "It's about time," nodded the Master of Novices. "You've done nothing but complain since you got here!"

A rising young accountant canceled his plan to move his family from Trenton to Princeton. "In Princeton," he explained, "we'd be like the others there—trying to keep up with the Joneses. In Trenton, I'm Jones."

Speaking of Your Health

By Lester L. Coleman, M.D.

What happens to the knee joint when the cartilage is torn? Cartilage is a very dense, elastic tissue which is able to withstand a tremendous amount of pressure. The cartilage of the knee separates the femur, the large bone from the hip down to the knee, and the two smaller bones, the tibia and fibula below the knee.

All ordinary activity and motion is made easier and smoother by the cartilage between the bones. A sudden twisting or turning movement, especially during active sports, will frequently tear a small piece of the cartilage and rip it away from its attachment to the bone. The result is severe pain on movement, frequently associated with a locking of the knee, making motion painful and difficult. Swelling and extreme sensitivity to touch can make it almost impossible to walk.

Only occasionally does a torn cartilage heal by itself even with long periods of rest. Injuries without tearing respond well to restricted activity with the knee in some form of cast. When surgery is necessary the torn piece of cartilage is removed, the leg put at rest and within a few weeks almost complete activity can once again be started.

The decision to operate depends, of course, on the discriminating judgment of the surgeon who takes into consideration the severity of the condition, how much it interferes with a person's livelihood, and whether or not there is any possibility of a permanent cure without it. After surgery, athletes who put a great deal of strain on the knee are once again able to play their vigorous sports.

How should a habit tic be treated in a young child?

A tic is a spasm of a muscle anywhere in the body. A tic becomes more apparent when it appears on the face, the eyes, the neck or the head. There are a number of different types of habit spasms or tics. Most of them are generally recognized as being psychological in origin and may represent some emotional stress or frustration.

Tics seem to appear in children about the age of five and may show up by repeated blinking of the eyes or twitching of the face. Sometimes a habit tic may be a constant hacking or coughing, attributed to an attempt to gain more attention.

It is imperative that a general physical examination be made to definitely rule out the possibility of some underlying condition as a responsible factor for the habit spasm.

The next thought is not meant to induce anxiety in readers, but rather to show that there are some tics that can be identified with important medical problems. Rheumatic fever, for example, may be associated with uncontrollable movements of the shoulders and neck which might wrongly be classed as psychological tics if the problem is not thoroughly investigated.

Tics are involuntary and, therefore, cannot be controlled by the child unless the emotional stress is cleared up. Shaming, nagging, or even punishing a child because of a tic only serves to aggravate the condition by increasing tension. A consultation with a psychologist or a psychiatrist may point the way to the simple control of a tic and spare the child a great deal of embarrassment.

Quack cures take more than a billion dollars out of the pockets of Americans yearly.

New Hawaiian Tour Aimed at People

HONOLULU (AP) — Raymond A. Aki has plunged into the tourism field with a new enterprise aimed at placing visitors in private homes instead of hotels.

Aki said Hawaii Home Visitor, which he expects to start, will cater to couples over 40 years old.

The promotion, whose theme is "See Hawaii Through its People," will offer a 14 day package tour of four islands — Oahu (Honolulu), Maui, Kauai and Hawaii.

"The regular tourists now staying in hotels don't get the chance to really know our local residents," Aki said, adding that home and apartment owners will get $6 to $14 a day for opening their homes.

Nixon's Nomination

By JOHN CHAMBERLAIN

Miami Beach — Richard Nixon owes his nomination as the Republican candidate for President of the United States to a number of things, beginning with his own pertinacity as a worker in the party vineyard over a four-year period. But he wouldn't have made it if he hadn't been for two honest men, Senator Strom Thurmond of South Carolina and Charlton Lyons, a leading delegate from Louisiana.

In the late hours before the balloting, Clifton White, the field marshal extraordinary of the Ronald Reagan delegate hunt, trembled on the verge of a spectacular breakthrough. For purposes of getting the nomination, Nixon had pursued the same sort of southern strategy that won for Barry Goldwater four years ago. Last April he thought he had a huge majority of the southern delegates in his pocket. But Clifton White kept combing the country, chipping off a bit here and a bit there. Gradually it became apparent to him that the latent Reagan strength in the south could become a formidable obstacle to a first-ballot Nixon victory.

The Texas Delegation wasn't solid for Nixon, and Reagan had his friends in North Carolina, Mississippi, Alabama, Georgia, and Florida. But South Carolina and Louisiana, though they also had many delegates who really favored Reagan, posed the big problem: they had chivalric southerners in key positions who had given their word to Nixon, and they couldn't be budged.

Senator Strom Thurmond is a military man; Charlton Lyons is a gentleman of the old school. They don't know what it is to lie. (Nor, for that matter, does Thurmond's political agent, Harry Dent.) They also refused to believe that Nixon would select a vice presidential running mate without giving them full opportunity to approve the choice in advance.

So, when Clifton White's lieutenants came to them, offering plausible reasons for believing that (A) Reagan would be the stronger candidate, and (B) that Nixon might make a quick jump to a national strategy to woo the northern cities with a vice presidential ploy that would be unacceptable in South Carolina and Louisiana, not to mention the rest of Dixie, Thurmond and Lyons turned deaf ears. A cynical southerner from New Orleans remarked that White had encountered the only two honest politicians in America. A frustrated worker at Reagan headquarters, lacking Clifton White's infinite patience, remarked, with considerable acrimony, that "Strom Thurmond is just a stubborn old man."

So the linchpins in the Nixon pre-balloting strategic construction held. The ironic thing about it is that Thurmond, Lyons, and Dent were all part of what might be called the "Clifton White Society of Friends." They had stood with him on St. Crispin's Day in 1964. It must have broken their hearts to turn him down in 1968. But they couldn't have lived with their own consciences if they had done otherwise.

When the history of the pre-convention fight for the nomination is untangled, the Nixon nomination will stand with the master politicians of the age. He covered his flanks with consummate agility, meanwhile driving ahead with the rank and file of party workers everywhere. A centrist who was distrusted by the conservatives in his party, he had to engineer his acceptance by right wing intellectuals who might have veto power strength in 1968. Pat Buchanan, a young St. Louis newspaperman who joined the Nixon forces quite early in the drive for the presidency, did much patient missionary work with writers, publicists, and editors who found it difficult to rid themselves of the idea that Nixon was just another liberal, or at least a man who would always give up more than half of the loaf to the liberals. The intellectuals may have been sullen at times about being committed to Nixon when it seemed that Reagan winds might begin blowing. But they never became mutinous.

Nixon handled the Rockefeller push by beating it back. He handled the Reagan threat by getting in on the ground floor with the more important chivalric southerners and the key conservative intellectuals before Clifton White could get into the act. The lesson is an old one: if you want to be president, you must dare greatly in seeking the job. The office doesn't seek the man, though, as Nixon has said, the tides of history and the willing man may coincide.

Gasoline Victory

The fight waged by a New Jersey gasoline retailer against giveaway gimmicks has been won — at least as long as a state Superior Court ruling withstands possible appeals by the oil companies which reap most of the awards.

Superior Court Judge Mintz had to look no further than New Jersey's motor vehicle tax law for authority to rule out the giveaways as "games of chance."

The "no-purchase-necessary" clause at the gasoline stations was not sufficient cause to shield the various games from the law, Judge Mintz ruled.

The decision is a limited victory for Nicholas Del Spina and for the gasoline retailer associations which have supported him. The real winner is, or should be, the customer, whose extra penny or two a gallon paid for the prizes which seldom came up.

In his testimony, Mr. Del Spina said when the giveaways were introduced gasoline which had sold for 31.9 cents a gallon went up to 33.9 cents at 85 percent of the stations which handled the tickets.

A Census Test

Trenton, N. J., will be the site of a "dress rehearsal" for the 1970 federal census. Because of its ethnic and income balance, the city will be used to test a new method designed to correct deficiencies in the 1960 census, in which large numbers of slum residents went uncouned.

As a prelude, Trenton's anti-poverty agency has launched a program to explain to the slum resident the importance of properly responding to the census.

Such a procedure could well be followed in all urban areas in view of the fact that federal aid allotments to municipalities are based on the figures ultimately reported.

When the trial-run count begins in September, door-to-door enumerators will be replaced by mailed questionnaires in low-income areas. Enumerators will call only if no response is received.

It is possible the mail method will prove more effective in reaching those inclined to secrecy when the census taker calls.

A drastic reduction in the number of questions could elicit even more cooperation and a more accurate count.

Preventing Hijackings

The aviation industry is casting about for some method of preventing airplane hijackings, but isn't making much progress. In a mood of desperation, pilots have been briefed on landing instructions at Havana Airport.

The problem is a serious one. Recently there were two hijackings within 48 hours, and airlines have decided that because of the safety aspects involved, it is nearly impossible to keep a hijacker from taking over a plane.

The Federal Aviation Administration's ruling that cockpit doors must be kept closed and locked is worthless. A gunman need only threaten hostesses or passengers, or he can simply threaten to depressurize the cabin by shooting a hole in a window.

If there is an answer, it probably will have to be some kind of x-ray or electronic device which will detect weapons in luggage and on passengers.

This has been suggested by the pilot of a recently commandeered airliner. Maybe it would work.

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

THE GILBERT MILLERS have open house every New Year's Eve at which virtually everybody who is anybody in New York drops in during the evening. At the height of one of these "dos" a lady caught Mrs. Miller's ear to whisper, "That distinguished man over there seems to speak Greek rather fluently." "Why shouldn't he?" responded Mrs. Miller. "He's the King of Greece."

An elderly sinner renounced the world and sought sanctuary at a monastery, though he was warned by the Master of Novices he couldn't speak for five years—and then would be permitted only two words. At the end of the five years he appeared before the Master and spoke his two words: "Hard beds!" Another five years drifted by, and now his two words were "Terrible food." At the end of the third five-year period, he announced, "I quit." "It's about time," nodded the Master of Novices. "You've done nothing but complain since you got here!"

A rising young accountant canceled his plan to move his family from Trenton to Princeton. "In Princeton," he explained, "we'd be like the others there—trying to keep up with the Joneses. In Trenton, I'm Jones."

Speaking of Your Health

By Lester L. Coleman, M.D.

What happens to the knee joint when the cartilage is torn? Cartilage is a very dense, elastic tissue which is able to withstand a tremendous amount of pressure. The cartilage of the knee separates the femur, the large bone from the hip down to the knee, and the two smaller bones, the tibia and fibula below the knee.

All ordinary activity and motion is made easier and smoother by the cartilage between the bones. A sudden twisting or turning movement, especially during active sports, will frequently tear a small piece of the cartilage and rip it away from its attachment to the bone. The result is severe pain on movement, frequently associated with a locking of the knee, making motion painful and difficult. Swelling and extreme sensitivity to touch can make it almost impossible to walk.

Only occasionally does a torn cartilage heal by itself even with long periods of rest. Injuries without tearing respond well to restricted activity with the knee in some form of cast. When surgery is necessary the torn piece of cartilage is removed, the leg put at rest and within a few weeks almost complete activity can once again be started.

The decision to operate depends, of course, on the discriminating judgment of the surgeon who takes into consideration the severity of the condition, how much it interferes with a person's livelihood, and whether or not there is any possibility of a permanent cure without it. After surgery, athletes who put a great deal of strain on the knee are once again able to play their vigorous sports.

How should a habit tic be treated in a young child? A tic is a spasm of a muscle anywhere in the body. A tic becomes more apparent when it appears on the face, the eyes, the neck or the head. There are a number of different types of habit spasms or tics. Most of them are generally recognized as being psychological in origin and may represent some emotional stress or frustration.

Tics seem to appear in children about the age of five and may show up by repeated blinking of the eyes or twitching of the face. Sometimes a habit tic may be a constant hacking or coughing, attributed to an attempt to gain more attention.

It is imperative that a general physical examination be made to definitely rule out the possibility of some underlying condition as a responsible factor for the habit spasm.

The next thought is not meant to induce anxiety in readers, but rather to show that there are some tics that can be identified with important medical problems. Rheumatic fever, for example, may be associated with uncontrollable movements of the shoulders and neck which might wrongly be classed as psychological tics if the problem is not thoroughly investigated.

Tics are involuntary and, therefore, cannot be controlled by the child unless the emotional stress is cleared up. Shaming, nagging, or even punishing a child because of a tic only serves to aggravate the condition by increasing tension. A consultation with a psychologist or a psychiatrist may point the way to the simple control of a tic and spare the child a great deal of embarrassment.

New Hawaiian Tour Aimed at People

HONOLULU (AP) — Raymond A. Aki has plunged into the tourism field with a new enterprise aimed at placing visitors in private homes instead of hotels.

Aki said Hawaii Home Visitor, which he expects to start, will cater to couples over 40 years old.

The promotion, whose theme is "See Hawaii Through its People," will offer a 14-day package tour of four islands — Oahu (Honolulu), Maui, Kauai and Hawaii.

"The regular tourists now staying in hotels don't get the chance to really know our local residents," Aki said, adding that home and apartment owners will get $6 to $14 a day for opening their homes.

Uncle Sam picks up the tab for the world's most expensively tailored clothes. They are the individually fitted 21-layer suits which U.S. astronauts will wear on projected flights to the moon.

Although women generally brush their teeth more often than men, they are more likely than men to lose all their choppers. On the average, U.S. women have two more fillings or missing teeth than men. At any age they are also more likely to need eyeglasses. About 50 per cent of the female population wear them, only 43 per cent of the male population.

Prairie Gardeners Slate Annual Open Flower Show

All amateur gardeners are invited to attend and participate in the Prairie Gardeners 15th annual open flower show scheduled for Saturday. The occasion will be held in the annex of the Columbia Heights Methodist Church, 91 Sturbridge Road, Columbus.

Entries are to be made between 10 a. m. and 12 noon. Theme of the show will be "Election '68." Some of the artistic classes will be "Primary" an arrangement using at least two primary colors and foliage; "Platform," a horizontal arrangement; "Your Vote," miniature, not over 5 inches over all; plus seven different other arrangement classes for adults.

The junior gardeners will have three different artistic arrangement classes, one of which is entitled "The Band Wagon" expressing rhythm. There will be 26 specimen classes for the adult gardeners and four for the juniors, including a special class for the area Camp Fire Girls, who will exhibit marigolds as the Prairie Gardeners presented the plants to the girls.

Flower show co-chairmen are Mrs. Howard Balzer, 129 Fernhill Road, Columbus, and Mrs. Henry Warner, 179 Galloway Road, from whom copies of the flower show schedule may be secured.

Of interest to all gardeners will be the educational conservation exhibits plus the plant sale. There will be informative and helpful literature available for the gardeners attending the show. Invitational niches containing arrangements created by members of area garden clubs depicting, "America The Beautiful," will be shown.

For the convenience of the exhibitors who wish to remain for the oral judging which will start 1 p.m. there will be a snack bar. This show will be judged by an accredited judge and member of the Judges Council, regions 8 and 9 of the OAGC and has been entered for state competition. The show will be open to the public from 3:30 to 8 p.m. with no admission charge.

Mrs. E. Wolfe Honored with Picnic Dinner

Mrs. Robert Denman, 225 Northridge Road, assisted by Mrs. Gayle Wolfe entertained with a turkey dinner Tuesday served in the yard at the Denman home.

Attending were Mrs. Elmer Wolfe, Mrs. Stella Stebelton, Arthur Boone, Miss Florence Boushner and Isaac Fausnaugh, all residents of the Circleville Home. Accompanying the guests was Mrs. Charles Walters.

Following the noon dinner a decorated birthday cake was served in honor of Mrs. Elmer Wolfe's birthday. Punch was served in bowls purchased in India by Mrs. Denman.

How Weather Looks Today

Circleville High School Class of 1948 Reunites

Fond memories were rekindled Saturday night when the Circleville High School Class of 1948 celebrated its 20th reunion at the L-K Restaurant.

Gathering for the first time since their days under the realm of the Red and Black were 27 members of the class. The festivities included a banquet dinner, brief program and an extended session for renewing old acquaintances and reliving past events.

A moment of silent tribute was paid to deceased members of the class — Robert L. Eccard, Phyllis (Weller) Struckman and Charles E. Rittinger. Three white carnations placed on the class officers' table were in their honor.

A committee that planned the banquet was composed of Jean Fissell, Rosemary Watters, Jacqueline Neff, Jeanne Shea, Richard Fullen and Paul Smallwood who served as toastmaster for the evening.

The class will hold its 25th reunion in 1973. A planning committee selected to head the next event consists of Marcus Albright (chairman), Robert Huffer, Edward (Yock) Strawser, Robert Boggs, Jacqueline Neff, Rosemary Watters, Jeanne Shea and Jean Fissell.

The exact date and location of the 1973 reunion will be determined by the committee.

Classmates unable to attend the reunion but sending letters offering best wishes were Donald Beck of Lafayette, La., Sister Frances K. Groom of Washington, D.C., Virginia (Wise) Johnson of Lancaster and Faye (Allen) Davis of Circleville.

Present from outside the community were Mr. and Mrs. James Eitel (Pat Quince), Mt. Vernon; Mr. and Mrs. William Courtwright (Pat Metzger), Mt. Vernon; Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Richardson (Edna Maynard), Warren, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hoffman (Wanda Young), Uncasville, Conn.; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Turner (Lucille Stambaugh), Jackson, O.; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Elsea, Ashland, Ky.; Mr. and Mrs. Myron Pettit, Columbus; Jack Coffland, Chicago; and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Boggs, Grove City.

Enjoying the evening from this locality were Mr. and Mrs. Dixie Watters (Rosemary Stonerock), Mr. and Mrs. Hugh A. Neff (Jacqueline Eitel), Mrs. John Fissell (Jean Hall), Mr. and Mrs. Tom Shea (Jeanne Spangler), Mrs. Louise Davis (Louise Gray), Mrs. Clyde Fuller (Peggy Maiden), Mr. and Mrs. Paul Smallwood, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Strawser, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Leasure (Wanda Raymond), Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Rhodes (Blivian Woodward), Mr. and Mrs. Donald Woodward, Carl Radcliff Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Robert Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Fullen, Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Albright, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Huffer, Mr. and Mrs. Paul D. Kraft and David Olney.

Prairie Gardeners Slate Annual Open Flower Show

All amateur gardeners are invited to attend and participate in the Prairie Gardeners 15th annual open flower show scheduled for Saturday. The occasion will be held in the annex of the Columbia Heights Methodist Church, 91 Sturbridge Road, Columbus.

Entries are to be made between 10 a. m. and 12 noon. Theme of the show will be "Election '68." Some of the artistic classes will be "Primary" an arrangement using at least two primary colors and foliage; "Platform," a horizontal arrangement; "Your Vote," miniature, not over 5 inches over all; plus seven different other arrangement classes for adults.

The junior gardeners will have three different artistic arrangement classes, one of which is entitled "The Band Wagon" expressing rhythm. There will be 26 specimen classes for the adult gardeners and four for the juniors, including a special class for the area Camp Fire Girls, who will exhibit marigolds as the Prairie Gardeners presented the plants to the girls.

Flower show co-chairmen are Mrs. Howard Balzer, 129 Fernhill Road, Columbus, and Mrs. Henry Warner, 179 Galloway Road, from whom copies of the flower show schedule may be secured.

Of interest to all gardeners will be the educational conservation exhibits plus the plant sale. There will be informative and helpful literature available for the gardeners attending the show. Invitational niches containing arrangements created by members of area garden clubs depicting, "America The Beautiful," will be shown.

For the convenience of the exhibitors who wish to remain for the oral judging which will start 1 p.m. there will be a snack bar. This show will be judged by an accredited judge and member of the Judges Council, regions 8 and 9 of the OAGC and has been entered for state competition. The show will be open to the public from 3:30 to 8 p.m. with no admission charge.

Mrs. E. Wolfe Honored with Picnic Dinner

Mrs. Robert Denman, 225 Northridge Road, assisted by Mrs. Gayle Wolfe entertained with a turkey dinner Tuesday served in the yard at the Denman home.

Attending were Mrs. Elmer Wolfe, Mrs. Stella Stebelton, Arthur Boone, Miss Florence Bowsler and Isaac Faunsnaugh, all residents of the Circleville Home. Accompanying the guests was Mrs. Charles Walters.

Following the noon dinner a decorated birthday cake was served in honor of Mrs. Elmer Wolfe's birthday. Punch was served in bowls purchased in India by Mrs. Denman.

OLD ROLE, NEW SCENE—French actress Brigitte Bardot, 34, strolls along the beach at Monaco with Italian shipbuilding heir Luigi Rizzi, 24, in whose company she has spent most of the summer and whom she reportedly will wed—after she and husband Gunther Sachs get shut of each other.

Use of Funds For Papal Visit Brings Sit-In

SANTIAGO, Chile (AP) — Some 200 young Roman Catholics—eight of them priests—held a sit-in for 14 hours in Santiago's cathedral Sunday, accusing the church of neglecting the poor while lavishing funds on the coming visit of Pope Paul VI to South America.

The Archdiocese of Santiago said it "profoundly lamented and condemned" the occupation of the cathedral, which was carried out with military precision.

Barring the congregation from Mass, the demonstrators held their own service and joined in folk singing led by two Communist entertainers.

Police did not enter the cathedral or arrest the girls and bearded youths who took over the 100-year-old edifice but jeered as they left the church, there were fist fights and scuffling.

"We're not against the Pope or his visit," to the Eucharistic congress later this month at Medellin, Colombia, said one demonstrator. "We are against the way the visit is being planned."

"Too much money will be spent on needless ceremony," said a youth.

"The church must realize that it must be for all men, poor as well as rich," said another.

The takeover was carefully planned and carried out with precision. On Saturday, 20 of the youths hid in the confessionals and among the statuary. Before dawn Sunday they opened a door and let in the other demonstrators.

One young man silenced the cathedral's great bell. Another passed out walkie-talkies by which leaders communicated with a central command post. Others stood watch on the towers of the cathedral.

Young girls prepared credentials for newsmen, the only persons allowed in the cathedral other than the demonstrators.

Washington (AP) — Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower, nearing the end of a critical period of recovery after his sixth heart attack, continues to "show satisfactory improvement."

This was reported by doctors at Walter Reed Army Hospital in their daily bulletin Sunday.

The 77-year-old general of the Army suffered his latest attack last Tuesday while at Walter Reed recuperating from an earlier one.

Doctors generally believe the first week after a heart attack to be the most critical period.

Dear Abby:

By Abigail Van Buren

Brief Visit Cure for Missing Shorts

DEAR ABBY: Today while doing my dishes I just happened to glance out of my kitchen window in time to see my next door neighbor take two pairs of my husband's brand new shorts off my clothesline. Now Abby, I know she couldn't have mistaken them for her own laundry as she had absolutely nothing on her clothesline at the time.

Should I talk to her about this? Or should I ask my husband to speak to her husband about it?

EYE WITNESS
DEAR EYE: Leave her husband (and yours) out of it. Just pay her a visit, tell her you came to collect the two pair of shorts she lifted off your clothesline, and don't be bashful. If you really want to teach her a lesson, wait a few weeks, and then tell her that you were very much surprised to discover that HER husband was wearing YOUR husband's shorts. (She'll go crazy wondering how you found out.)

DEAR ABBY: My only son is stationed in Vietnam. He has been there for 3 months. Shortly before he left, he became engaged to a girl he had been going with for 2 years.

Last night he telephoned her, and I am very hurt and upset because he has never telephoned me. He just told her to call his Mom and give her his love. Am I foolish for feeling as I do?

NO NAME PLEASE

DEAR NO NAME: Yes. You are to be congratulated for having raised a healthy, normal young man who is able to separate romantic love from mother love. The world is full of unhappy wives who would give anything to be married to a man like that. Cheer up, Mom.

DEAR ABBY: I plan to go to Paris to meet my fiance who is also an American citizen. There is a good chance that we will get married over there, but I would like to know a couple of things first.

Do I have to get a marriage license and blood test here first, or can I do it over there? If I do get married in France, will my marriage be recognized here? We are both over 21, if that makes any difference.

MAKING PLANS
DEAR MAKING: You must live in France for 30 days before you can be married there. You won't need a blood test, but you WILL need a French marriage application, which you should get in France. And yes, your marriage will be recognized here.

DEAR ABBY: This is for the woman who didn't mind that her second husband named three pigs after her three daughters by a former marriage.

After all, she should be most qualified to determine what namesakes are most appropriate for her three daughters.

However, when her husband called, "Rose, Joyce, and Marie," and the daughters AND the pigs came running, could he tell which was which?

Classic Auto Is Demolished

BEECHER, ILL. (AP) — Twelve persons received slight injuries Sunday in a two-car crash that destroyed one of the cars—a 1931 Marmon.

George Morton Taylor of Gary, Ind., owner and driver of the antique 7-passenger, 16-cylinder sedan, said it caught fire after the collision. He said the car was one of four in the nation.

Plane Lands After Call About Bomb

CINCINNATI (AP) — A telephoned bomb threat forced an airborne American Airlines passenger jet Saturday night to return to Greater Cincinnati Airport.

But an inch-by-inch search of the four-engine turboprop aircraft — flight 770 — produced nothing and the plane headed a second time for its destinations of Columbus and Cleveland.

Don Bandy, Associated Press newsman returning to Columbus from the Republican convention at Miami Beach, said as soon as the plane came to a stop, the stewardess said "quick, everyone out, hurry."

Bandy said the 70 passengers, including Q25 Army reservists returning to Cleveland, appeared "visibly shaken."

The airlines said a reservations employee received the anonymous threat from a person who asked if the plane had left the ground.

"It won't make it to Columbus. It will be in pieces," the caller said.

The airport tower contacted the jet to inform the pilot of the threat and the plane returned about 10 minutes after it departed.

Four passengers refused to get back on the plane when it departed for the second time, about two hours behind schedule.

Pope Again Defends Stand On Birth Control Devices

CASTEL GANDOLFO, Italy (AP) — Pope Paul VI defended his ban on artificial birth control again Sunday and asked God's blessing to convert those who oppose it.

Addressing the crowd assembled at his summer residence for his Sunday blessing, the Pope said his July 29 encyclical had drawn varying reactions throughout the world.

"And may all those who oppose it be blessed, so that their conscience may be illuminated and guided by moral, true and superior doctrinal rectitude," he added.

It was the third time since his birth control encyclical was issued that the pontiff spoke publicly in its defense. This lent support to a growing impression in Vatican circles that he will continue to resist all pressures to retreat from his ruling against contraceptive devices and pills.

The encyclical continued to spawn controversy around the world.

Bernard Cardinal Alfrink of the Netherlands, a leading church liberal, said in an interview that the Pope could be criticized for his stand, but there must be no schism in the church.

In Poland, Stefan Cardinal Wyszyński preached Sunday against birth control by artificial means as Communist authorities announced they would start producing contraceptive pills later this year. Polish women had used pills imported from Western countries until recently, when health authorities imported half a million pills from East Germany.

In Sydney, Australia, a meeting of Roman Catholics at Sydney University Hall voted 196-117 in favor of a resolution asserting: "We cannot accept the Pope's statement on birth control." The resolution declared that the use of artificial birth control was a matter of individual conscience.

The de-Americanization proposal was contained in the Republican plank on the Vietnam war.

Gallup said that closely comparable views are held by supporters of Richard M. Nixon, the GOP presidential nominee, and Democratic contenders Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy and Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey.

The pollster said the GOP plank is reminiscent of the 1952 strategy of the Republicans, when presidential candidate Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower called for greater participation by South Koreans in the Korean conflict.

A Gallup Poll at that time showed the public more than 2-to-1 in favor of Eisenhower's plan.

Ike Continues To Recuperate

WASHINGTON (AP) — Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower, nearing the end of a critical period of recovery after his sixth heart attack, continues to "show satisfactory improvement."

This was reported by doctors at Walter Reed Army Hospital in their daily bulletin Sunday.

The 77-year-old general of the Army suffered his latest attack last Tuesday while at Walter Reed recuperating from an earlier one.

Doctors generally believe the first week after a heart attack to be the most critical period.

Use of Funds For Papal Visit Brings Sit-In

SANTIAGO, Chile (AP) — Some 200 young Roman Catholics—eight of them priests—held a sit-in for 14 hours in Santiago's cathedral Sunday, accusing the church of neglecting the poor while lavishing funds on the coming visit of Pope Paul VI to South America.

The Archdiocese of Santiago said it "profoundly lamented and condemned" the occupation of the cathedral, which was carried out with military precision.

Barring the congregation from Mass, the demonstrators held their own service and joined in folk singing led by two Communist entertainers.

Police did not enter the cathedral or arrest the girls and bearded youths who took over the 100-year-old edifice but jeered as they left the church, there were fist fights and scuffling.

"We're not against the Pope or his visit," to the Eucharistic congress later this month at Medellin, Colombia, said one demonstrator. "We are against the way the visit is being planned."

"Too much money will be spent on needless ceremony," said a youth.

"The church must realize that it must be for all men, poor as well as rich," said another.

The takeover was carefully planned and carried out with precision. On Saturday, 20 of the youths hid in the confessionals and among the statures. Before dawn Sunday they opened a door and let in the other demonstrators.

One young man silenced the cathedral's great bell. Another passed out walkie-talkies by which leaders communicated with a central command post. Others stood watch on the towers of the cathedral.

Young girls prepared credentials for newsmen, the only persons allowed in the cathedral other than the demonstrators.

OLD ROLE, NEW SCENE—French actress Brigitte Bardot, 34, strolls along the beach at Monaco with Italian shipbuilding heir Luigi Rizzi, 24, in whose company she has spent most of the summer and whom she reportedly will wed—after she and husband Gunther Sachs get shut of each other.

Stokes Gives Demo Group His Views

CLEVELAND (AP) — Mayor Carl B. Stokes testifies today at the first of three Democratic party platform hearings in the state.

John J. Gilligan, chairman of the regional hearings and candidate for the U. S. Senate, said Sunday the sessions are being held to determine what the people of Ohio want included in the national platform.

Mayor Frank Petronek of Garfield Heights said he will press for federal financial support to staff, equip and train suburban police and fire departments.

Another suburban mayor, Irving W. Konigsberg of University Heights, said he will suggest a program for rehabilitation of houses not included in renewal programs.

Cleveland City Council President James V. Stanton said he wants the platform to include a plank calling for a national primary election "so that the popular will of the voters can be achieved."

Stanton, the Democratic candidate for Congress from the 23rd district, called for abolition of "the outmoded delegate system which does not reflect the majority opinion of those in their respective parties."

Support High For GOP's Viet Policy

PRINCETON, N.J. (AP) — The Republican party's pledge for the "de-Americanization" of the Vietnam war is favored by two of every three voters, the Gallup Poll said Sunday.

A survey made just prior to the GOP National Convention last week found that 66 per cent of the American electorate would back a candidate on such a stand.

The de-Americanization proposal was contained in the Republican plank on the Vietnam war.

Gallup said that closely comparable views are held by supporters of Richard M. Nixon, the GOP presidential nominee, and Democratic contenders Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy and Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey.

The pollster said the GOP plank is reminiscent of the 1952 strategy of the Republicans, when presidential candidate Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower called for greater participation by South Koreans in the Korean conflict.

Dear Abby:

Brief Visit Cure for Missing Shorts

DEAR ABBY: Today while doing my dishes I just happened to glance out of my kitchen window in time to see my next door neighbor take two pairs of my husband's brand new shorts off my clothesline. Now Abby, I know she couldn't have mistaken them for her own laundry as she had absolutely nothing on her clothesline at the time.

Should I talk to her about this? Or should I ask my husband to speak to her husband about it?

EYE WITNESS

DEAR EYE: Leave her husband (and yours) out of it. Just pay her a visit, tell her you came to collect the two pair of shorts she lifted off your clothesline, and don't be bashful. If you really want to teach her a lesson, wait a few weeks, and then tell her that you were very much surprised to discover that HER husband was wearing YOUR husband's shorts. (She'll go crazy wondering how you found out.)

DEAR ABBY: My only son is stationed in Vietnam. He has been there for 3 months. Shortly before he left, he became engaged to a girl he had been going with for 2 years.

Last night he telephoned her, and I am very hurt and upset because he has never telephoned me. He just told her to call his Mom and give her his love. Am I foolish for feeling as I do?

NO NAME PLEASE

DEAR NO NAME: Yes. You are to be congratulated for having raised a healthy, normal young man who is able to separate romantic love from mother love. The world is full of unhappy wives who would give anything to be married to a man like that. Cheer up, Mom.

DEAR ABBY: I plan to go to Paris to meet my fiancé who is also an American citizen. There is a good chance that we will get married over there, but I would like to know a couple of things first.

Do I have to get a marriage license and blood test here first, or can I do it over there? If I do get married in France, will my marriage be recognized here? We are both over 21, if that makes any difference.

MAKING PLANS

DEAR MAKING: You must live in France for 30 days before you can be married there. You won't need a blood test, but you WILL need a French marriage application, which you should get in France. And yes, your marriage will be recognized here.

DEAR ABBY: This is for the woman who didn't mind that her second husband named three pigs after her three daughters by a former marriage.

After all, she should be most qualified to determine what namesakes are most appropriate for her three daughters. However, when her husband called, "Rose, Joyce, and Marie," and the daughters AND the pigs came running, could he tell which was which?

Plane Lands After Call About Bomb

CINCINNATI (AP) — A telephoned bomb threat forced an airborne American Airlines passenger jet Saturday night to return to Greater Cincinnati Airport.

But an inch-by-inch search of the four-engine turboprop aircraft — flight 770 — produced nothing and the plane headed a second time for its destinations of Columbus and Cleveland.

Regan Rolls over Reds in 15 Innings for 8-5 Win

LE FOOTBALL PREPARATIONS — Wertie Teets (left), freshman and Dan Fausnaugh, junior, helped Logan Elm grid coach Marc Albright set up football practice equipment for Friday's opening workout. The three workers built a "noggin knocker" and a lineman chute Saturday. The Braves will be working with a seven-man sled purchased by the Booster Club.

Albright Calls LE Grid Meet

Logan Elm football mentor Marc Albright has called a grid preparation meeting for prospective football players and their parents 8 p.m. Wednesday at the high school.

Special speakers include George Hamrick on officiating, Sterling Poling on player insurance, Dr. William Myers, Booster Club president Paul Mayberry and guidance counselors from Logan Elm.

Uniforms for the team will be distributed 10 a.m. Thursday. Practice starts 9 a.m. Friday on a three-a-day basis.

Mediocre Mud Hens Hold Lead

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

First-place Toledo hasn't burned up the International League since August arrived, but if one of its pursuers doesn't put a winning streak together soon, the Mud Hens will coast home to the 1968 pennant.

Jacksonville, Columbus and Rochester all have taken turns in second place in the last 11 days. Not a one, however, has gained ground on Toledo, although the Mud Hens have won only seven of 12 August starts.

Toledo added to its advantage over all three Sunday as Fred Scherman blanked Jacksonville 5-0 while Louisville was edging Rochester 3-2, and Columbus was splitting two at Syracuse—winning, 6-5 in 15 innings, then losing to the chiefs, 7-0.

In other Sunday action, Richmond bombed Buffalo 11-2 in the opener of a doubleheader but the Bisons took the nightcap, 5-3.

Don Pepper belted his 12th home run in Toledo's shutout of Jacksonville.

Chris Cannizzaro's single, scoring Manny Sanguillen, who had doubled, produced the run that enabled Columbus to edge Syracuse in their four-hour, 18-minute, 15-inning opener.

Cincinnati Drops Into Fifth Place

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer
The Cincinnati Reds spent a long weekend trying to clip Phil Regan's wings, but neither bats nor fists could keep the Vulture from his appointed rounds.

Billy Williams' three-run inside-the-park homer in the 15th inning Sunday sent the Chicago Cubs past Cincinnati 8-5, giving relief ace Regan his second victory over the Reds in less than 24 hours.

But Regan, who has been preying on National League batters for three summers with Los Angeles and Chicago, had to work 7 2/3 innings—his longest stint since 1965—before nailing the victory.

Saturday night the 31-year-old right-hander survived a two-run homer by Lee Maye, a scuffle with Pete Rose while subduing the Reds 8-5. Sunday he gave up a tying two-run homer to Johnny Bench in the eighth, then hurled six scoreless innings before giving way to a pinch hitter in the 15th.

After Williams' second homer of the game broke a 5-5 deadlock, Jack Lamabe mopped up the Reds, preserving Regan's seventh straight victory and 10th in 12 decisions this year.

Los Angeles' Don Drysdale beat Philadelphia 1-0 for his eighth shutout; Felix Millan's five hits paced Atlanta to a 5-3 victory over first place St. Louis; San Francisco swept a twin bill from the New York Mets 2-1 and 5-0 behind southpaws Ray Sadecki and Mike McCormick, and Houston trimmed Pittsburgh 5-1 in other National League action.

Regan, nicknamed the Vulture three years ago while running up a 14-1 record in relief for the Dodgers, made his 52nd appearance of the season Sunday, rescuing Ken Holtzman from a seventh inning jam with the Cubs ahead 5-3. He was tagged for Bench's 10th homer after an error by Ron Santo in the eighth, then blanked the Reds in two hits through the 14th.

Don Kessinger, who had five of the Cubs' 14 hits, and Glenn Beckert singled in the 15th before Williams hit his 19th homer—a drive down the right field line that eluded May's bid for a shoe-top catch and rolled to the fence.

Williams poled a two-run homer and Ernie Banks clubbed his 21st of the season in the sixth.

Regan's slider—which opposing hitters suspect is akin to the spitball—made the Reds see red Saturday night. After May homered in the eighth, Regan hit Tony Perez with a pitch. Cincinnati's Clay Carroll nicked Regan with a pitch in the ninth and Rose took a swing at him after grounding out to end the game.

The punch didn't land, and Regan took another decision in Sunday's 15-round rematch.

Drysdale scattered four hits, struck out eight and drove in the only run with a two-out single in the fourth while snapping a personal four-game losing string and bringing his record to 13-10. It was the big right-hander's fourth 1-0 victory of the season, tying the club record previously shared by Nap Rucker, Johnny Podres and Sandy Koufax.

The Braves spotted St. Louis a 1-0 lead on Mike Shannon's second inning homer, then struck for five runs in the fourth, chasing left-hander Steve Carlton. Millan doubled home the go-ahead run and Deron Johnson delivered a two-run single. Pat Jarvis, 11-9, got the victory with relief help from Phil Niekro as Atlanta ended the Cards' winning streak at four games.

Sadecki fired a four-hitter, struck out 12 and retired 23 Mets in order from the second to the ninth, when they ruined his shutout bid on Tommie Agee's two-out triple and Phil Linz' infield single. Willie McCovey tripled in the sixth and scored the deciding run on Dick Dietz' single.

McCovey slammed his 30th homer with one on in the nightcap and McCormick also hit a two-run homer while blanking New York on five hits.

Denis Menke's two-run double in the sixth keyed the Astros' attack and Dave Giusti protected Larry Dierker's fifth straight victory with 2 2/3 innings of two-hit relief.

Tribe Eyes 3-Game Series Against Detroit, at Home

CLEVELAND (AP) — The Cleveland Indians get one last chance against the league-leading Detroit Tigers in a three-game series starting tonight in Municipal Stadium.

"We still have a chance to get back in the pennant race," said Manager Alvin Dark after the Indians took three out of four games in a weekend series in Chicago. But he added "we have to win three straight against Detroit."

The Tribe swept a doubleheader in Chicago Sunday but stayed 12 1/2 games behind the leaders as Detroit won two games with Boston. The Indians are half a game behind third-place Boston and 5 1/2 games behind Baltimore.

Stan Williams limited the White Sox to four hits as the Indians won the first game 4-1. Sam McDowell and Eddie Fisher teamed up for a five-hit, 2-1 victory in the second game.

The Tribe gave Williams all the support he needed in the second inning of the opener. They loaded the bases on two walks and a single by Larry Brown. Then, with two out, Russ Snyder batted for Dave Nelson and drove in a pair of runs. Lee Maye followed with another run scoring single.

Dark said he used a pinch hitter because "my shortstops and second basemen have been good on defense but aren't hitting."

McDowell lasted only 2 1/3 innings in the nightcap. The White Sox loaded the bases in the second on two walks and an error. McDowell forced in a run by walking pitcher Dan Lazar.

Fisher took over after the Sox loaded the bases again in the third. The knuckleballer didn't allow a hit until Luis Aparicio singled with two out in the seventh.

The Indians scored their runs in the second inning on singles by Joe Azcue and Tony Horton, a sacrifice fly by Tommy Harper and a passed ball.

Vicente Romo (1-0) starts for Cleveland tonight, facing Detroit's Dennis McLain, who is going after his 24th victory.

Swim Team Second in League Meet

Steve Penn and Mike Sparks won outstanding swimmer awards as the Circleville swim team finished second in the seven-team Mt. Pleasant League championship Sunday.

Winner of the meet was Lancaster Country Club, with 582 points. The locals had 253 points. Third was Tiki Swim Club with 248. Other finishers were Groveport-Madison, 213; Valley View, 88; Miller, 36; and Estate, 34.

Penn won his award for two wins in the meet in the boys 9-10 age group. Sparks competed in the 11-12 age division.

Seven local swimmers won first place trophies in the meet. Sparks won the 50-meter freestyle and Penn the 25-meter backstroke and 25-meter breaststroke. Cathy Wilson won the 50-meter breaststroke for girls ages 13 and 14. Eric Fortell won the 50-meter breaststroke for boys age 13 and 14. Debbie Shea won the 50-meter breaststroke for girls age 15-16 and 17.

Also winning a first place award in the girls 10 and under medley relay was the Circleville team consisting of Molly Shea, Carol Underdonk, Lisa Weller and Beth Clifton.

The Circleville Swim Team will hold its annual awards banquet Tuesday night at Ted Lewis Park.

Jim Ryun Wins Meet

WALNUT, Calif. (AP)—America's world record miler Jim Ryun has won his battle against the strength-sapping blood disease mononucleosis and will be ready for the Olympics.

In his first competitive mile race since being stopped by the ailment this spring, the 20-year-old Kansas star sped to a timing of 3 minutes 55.9 seconds to win the pre-Olympic meet at Mt. San Antonio on Saturday.

Under pressure from Roscoe Divine of Oregon, Ryun flashed the final quarter mile in 55.1 seconds after running the first three relatively slowly.

Also flashing comeback form at the Mt. San Antonio gathering of Olympic hopefuls was Billy Mills, the Marine of 1964 who surprisingly won the gold medal at 10,000 meters, proving Uncle Sam is no longer backward in distance events.

Suffering from a back ailment, Mills had to drop out of the AAU meet after running about 2 1/2 miles of the grueling test covering six miles 300 yards.

Old Bricks Better

PRAGUE (AP) — Bricks of the 14th century showed more resistance to frost than modern 20th century products, the news agency C.T.K. reported. It added that 600-year-old bricks of the Karlstejn castle near Prague were used in comparison tests and showed the same durability and strength as modern products.

PAPA, Hungary (AP) — Construction workers during their lunch hour threw rocks at an old, unsightly bottle and after a direct hit discovered it contained 184 French gold coins minted in the 19th century. The coins were delivered to the Hungarian National Bank.

Nicklaus Takes American After Playoff with Elder

By HAL PARIS

Associated Press Sports Writer
AKRON, Ohio (AP) — When you're in a head-to-head duel with golfer Jack Nicklaus it's tough to come out on top.

Lee Elder, a 33-year-old 10-year pro playing his first season on the tour, will be the first to admit it.

"I gave it all I had but there isn't much you can do when you're up against the world's best," Elder said Sunday.

He made the observation after staging the battle of his life before losing on the fifth hole of a sudden death playoff in the $125,000 American Golf Classic.

The stirring struggle ended when Big Jack rolled in a 10-foot birdie putt to cop the $25,000 jackpot.

Nicklaus, who now has won back-to-back tournaments after a victory drought that lasted 9 1/2 months, looked like he was human after all when he was in the bunker with his second shot on the second hole.

But the blond belter, needing a 30-foot putt after he blasted out to match Elder's par, promptly drilled it home.

Elder, the 1963 Negro golfer of the year from Washington, D.C., could have wrapped it up on the 8th hole of regulation play but he hit into two bunkers and took a bogey five.

Nicklaus, who birdied No. 18 with an eight-footer, had to wait out the finish and said "all I want is a playoff."

Frank Beard joined Nicklaus and Elder in the three-way playoff but dropped out after the first hole when he wasted his first two shots and parred the hole.

All had 72-hole totals of 280, even par for the distance. Nicklaus had a final 69, while Elder and Beard posted 70s.

Third-round leader Don Beis, a part-time tour player from Seattle, and Bert Yancey both missed chances to force a five-way playoff when they bogeyed their final hole.

Beis, who set the course record Saturday with a hot six-under 64, soared to a 75 while Yancey shot a 71. They finished in a four-way tie at 281 with Bob Stanton and PGA champion Julius Boros.

Finishing at 282 were Bob Lunn, George Knudson and Art Wall while Gardner Dickinson, Ray Floyd and Rod Funseth closed at 283.

Arnold Palmer looked like he was ready to make one of his famous charges when he moved within one stroke of the lead with a birdie on No. 11. But the fabled pro bogeyed Nos. 13 and 14 and suffered an embarrassing triple bogey eight on the monster 16th when he put his third shot in the water, overshot the green and needed three to get down.

Palmer's 76 put him in a seven-way knot at 284 while half-way leader Bill Campbell, 1964 U.S. amateur king, skied to a 77 for a 285.

Penn won his award for two wins in the meet in the boys 9-10 age group. Sparks competed in the 11-12 age division.

Seven local swimmers won first place trophies in the meet. Sparks won the 50-meter freestyle and Penn the 25-meter backstroke and 25-meter breaststroke. LE FOOTBALL PREPARATIONS — Wurtie Teets (left), freshman and Dan Fausnaugh, junior, helped Logan Elm grid coach Marc Albright set up football practice equipment for Friday's opening workout. The three workers built a "noggin knocker" and a lineman chute Saturday. The Braves will be working with a seven-man sled purchased by the Booster Club.

Albright Calls LE Grid Meet

Logan Elm football mentor Marc Albright has called a grid preparation meeting for prospective football players and their parents 8 p.m. Wednesday at the high school.

Special speakers include George Hamrick on officiating, Sterling Poling on player insurance, Dr. William Myers, Booster Club president Paul Mayberry and guidance counselors from Logan Elm.

Uniforms for the team will be distributed 10 a.m. Thursday. Practice starts 9 a.m. Friday on a three-day basis.

Mediocre Mud Hens Hold Lead

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

First-place Toledo hasn't burned up the International League since August arrived, but if one of its pursuers doesn't put a winning streak together soon, the Mud Hens will coast home to the 1968 pennant.

Jacksonville, Columbus and Rochester all have taken turns in second place in the last 11 days. Not a one, however, has gained ground on Toledo, although the Mud Hens have won only seven of 12 August starts.

Toledo added to its advantage over all three Sunday as Fred Scherman blanked Jacksonville 5-0 while Louisville was edging Rochester 3-2, and Columbus was splitting two at Syracuse—winning, 6-5 in 15 innings, then losing to the chiefs, 7-0.

In other Sunday action, Richmond bombed Buffalo 11-2 in the opener of a doubleheader but the Bisons took the nightcap, 5-3.

Don Pepper belted his 12th home run in Toledo's shutout of Jacksonville.

Chris Cannizzaro's single, scoring Manny Sanguillen, who had doubled, produced the run that enabled Columbus to edge Syracuse in their four-hour, 18-minute, 15-inning opener.

Cincinnati Drops Into Fifth Place

By DICK COUCH

Associated Press Sports Writer
The Cincinnati Reds spent a long weekend trying to clip Phil Regan's wings, but neither bats nor fists could keep the Vulture from his appointed rounds.

Billy Williams' three-run inside-the-park homer in the 15th inning Sunday sent the Chicago Cubs past Cincinnati 8-5, giving relief ace Regan his second victory over the Reds in less than 24 hours.

But Regan, who has been preying on National League batters for three summers with Los Angeles and Chicago, had to work 7 2/3 innings—his longest stint since 1965—before nailing the victory.

Saturday night the 31-year-old right-hander survived a two-run homer by Lee Maye, a scuffle with Pete Rose while subduing the Reds 8-5. Sunday he gave up a tying two-run homer to Johnny Bench in the eighth, then hurled six scoreless innings before giving way to a pinch hitter in the 15th.

After Williams' second homer of the game broke a 5-5 deadlock, Jack Lamabe mopped up the Reds, preserving Regan's seventh straight victory and 10th in 12 decisions this year.

Finishing at 282 were Bob Lunn, George Knudson and Art Wall while Gardner Dickinson, Ray Floyd and Rod Funseth closed at 283.

Arnold Palmer looked like he was ready to make one of his famous charges when he moved within one stroke of the lead with a birdie on No. 11. But the faded pro bogeyed Nos. 13 and 14 and suffered an embarrassing triple bogey eight on the monster 16th when he put his third shot in the water, overshot the green and needed three to get down.

Palmer's 76 put him in a seven-way knot at 284 while half-way leader Bill Campbell, 1964 U.S. amateur king, skied to a 77 for a 285.

Swim Team Second in League Meet

Steve Penn and Mike Sparks won outstanding swimmer awards as the Circleville swim team finished second in the seven-team Mt. Pleasant League championship Sunday.

Winner of the meet was Lancaster Country Club, with 582 points. The locals had 253 points. Third was Tiki Swim Club with 248. Other finishers were Groveport-Madison, 213; Valley View, 88; Miller, 36; and Estate, 34.

Penn won his award for two wins in the meet in the boys 9-10 age group. Sparks competed in the 11-12 age division.

Seven local swimmers won first place trophies in the meet. Sparks won the 50-meter freestyle and Penn the 25-meter backstroke and 25-meter breaststroke. Cathy Wilson won the 50-meter breaststroke for girls ages 13 and 14. Eric Fortell won the 50-meter breaststroke for boys age 13 and 14. Debbie Shea won the 50-meter breaststroke for girls age 15-16 and 17.

Also winning a first place award in the girls 10 and under medley relay was the Circleville team consisting of Molly Shea, Carol Underdonk, Lisa Weller and Beth Clifton.

The Circleville Swim Team will hold its annual awards banquet Tuesday night at Ted Lewis Park.

Tigers Top Red Sox in Twinbill

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer
In this age of specialization, Detroit's Gates Brown has found his niche. His specialty is destroying the Boston Red Sox. Brown did his thing twice Sunday as the Tigers stretched their American League lead to a fat seven games with a 5-4, 6-5 sweep over the Red Sox.

In the first game, Brown tagged a 14th inning pinch homer for the winning run. It was his fourth pinch hitting appearance against Boston this season and his third homer. The other time he only doubled.

In the nightcap, Detroit Manager Mayo Smith played unfairly, inserting Brown in the starting line-up. Sure enough, Gates delivered ninth inning single that climaxed a four-run rally and gave the Tigers the sweep.

For the season, Brown has seven hits in 10 swings against Boston. You might say the Red Sox's book on him is somewhat incomplete.

Elsewhere, Minnesota walked the New York Yankees 11-2, California rocked Baltimore 11-1, Oakland whipped Washington 8-3 and Cleveland swept a doubleheader from the Chicago White Sox 6-1 and 2-1.

Brown, who batted only 91 times last season and has been to the plate just 52 times this season, connected against reliever Lee Stange in the first game and made a winner of Mickey Lolich.

Eagles Lose Tilt to Lions, Norm Snead Breaks Leg

By MIKE RECHT
Associated Press Sports Writer

A black cloud hovered over the head of Joe Kuharich today and it will be some time before it leaves, but all is sunny for George Wilson, who sees even brighter skies ahead.

"I'm just a jinxed coach," moaned Kuharich, whose Philadelphia Eagles lost a National Football League exhibition to Detroit 20-3 Sunday and their No. 1 quarterback Norm Snead to a broken leg.

"The black clouds are right over the top of us. (But) we can't jeopardize Snead's future. I personally won't push him... I'll go for the maximum knitting period."

Coach Wilson, on the other hand, was beaming after his Miami Dolphins tied Buffalo 28-28 in an American League contest and All-American fullback Larry Csonka climaxed his pro debut by scoring the tying touchdown in the final period.

"He made a few mistakes, but—and that's a big but—wait a few more weeks," Wilson said. "He'll really shake them up."

In Sunday's other pre-season game, Mike Clark kicked his third field goal of the game midway through the final period to give the Dallas Cowboys a 16-14 edge over San Francisco in the NFL.

On Saturday night in the NFL, the New York Giants shocked Green Bay 15-14 on Fran Tarkenton's four-yard touchdown pass to Joe Morrison with 14 seconds remaining; Charley Gogolak's 45-yard field goal with 16 seconds left gave Washington a 16-14 decision over Atlanta, and Baltimore blanked Chicago 10-0 on a Johnny Unitas touchdown pass and Lou Michaels' field goal.

In the AFL, Bob Humphreys booted a 33-yard field goal with five seconds left for Denver's 15-13 victory over Cincinnati, and Oakland bombed San Diego 31-7 as Daryle Lamonic hurled two scoring passes.

In interleague play, Bill Kilmer passed New Orleans of the NFL by Boston 19-0, and Kansas City of the AFL stopped Minnesota 13-10 on Jan Stenerud's 15-yard field goal with 47 seconds remaining.

The New York Jets play at Houston in an AFL game to night.

He's making a strong bid to have back-to-back seasons as the Sporting News National League Fireman of the Year. (He also won it in 1965.) Ted saved 26 games for the Reds in '67, and had an impressive 1.27 earned run average.

New U.S. Satellite ATS-4 Proves $28 Million Failure

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — America's Applications Technology Satellite 4 tumbled around earth in the wrong orbit today as space engineers attempted to salvage what they could from a $28 million mission spoiled by rocket failure.

Officials at the National Aeronautics and Space Administration's Goddard Space Flight center in Greenbelt, Md., said ATS 4 was cartwheeling at the rate of one revolution every 40 seconds and was still attached to the upper stage of its Atlas Centaur booster rocket.

The drum-shaped satellite, packing a new weather-watching camera built to stalk storms in daylight or darkness, blasted into space Saturday aiming for an orbit that would keep it permanently positioned 22,300 miles over the equator west of South America.

Fn route, however, the Centaur upper stage of ATS 4's

Nightmare Comes True for Actress

SALISBURY, Rhodesia (AP) — The kind of nightmare most women dread being caught wearing haircurlers in public — came true for pretty Wendy Berk, but with a difference.

Thousands of televisioners saw the sophisticated TV personality do her one-girl advertising show blissfully unaware that two haircurlers were holding her blonde tresses in place. Apparently none of the studio crew noticed the curlers, but moments after concluding the show, studio telephones were jammed with calls.

Some suggested it was all a joke. Others thought the new fashion rather becoming. A few males were not as admiring and a lot of women offered sympathy.

Wendy's only comment: "I just want to curl up and die."

Alarming Kick

LOUISVILLE (AP) — A volleyball game produced quite a turnout at Assumption High School in Louisville.

One of the girls kicked the ball against a fire alarm.

That sent all of the students into the yard and brought six pieces of fire equipment hurrying to the school.

Things returned to normal after officials explained the accidental chain reaction that set off the alarm.

Tigers Top Red Sox in Twinbill

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

In this age of specialization, Detroit's Gates Brown has found his niche. His specialty is destroying the Boston Red Sox. Brown did his thing twice Sunday as the Tigers stretched heir American League lead to a fat seven games with a 5-4, 6-5 sweep over the Red Sox. In the first game, Brown tagged a 14th inning pinch homer for the winning run. It was his fourth pinch hitting appearance against Boston this season and his third homer. The other time he only doubled.

In the nightcap, Detroit Manager Mayo Smith played unfairly, inserting Brown in the starting line-up. Sure enough, Gates delivered ninth inning single that climaxed a four-run rally and gave the Tigers the sweep.

For the season, Brown has seven hits in 10 swings against Boston. You might say the Red Sox's book on him is somewhat incomplete.

Elsewhere, Minnesota walloped the New York Yankees 11-2, California rocked Baltimore 11-1, Oakland whipped Washington 8-3 and Cleveland swept a doubleheader from the Chicago White Sox 6-1 and 2-1.

Brown, who batted only 91 times last season and has been to the plate just 52 times this season, connected against reliever Lee Stange in the first game and made a winner of Mickey Lolich.

31-7 as Daryle Lamonia hurled two scoring passes. In interleague play, Bill Kilmer passed New Orleans of the NFL by Boston 19-0, and Kansas City of the AFL stopped Minnesota 13-10 on Jan Stenerud's 15-yard field goal with 47 seconds remaining.

The New York Jets play at Houston in an AFL game tonight.

On Saturday night in the NFL, the New York Giants shocked Green Bay 14-14 on Fran Tarkenton's four-yard touchdown pass to Joe Morrison with 14 seconds remaining; Charley Gogolak's 45-yard field goal with 16 seconds left gave Washington a 16-14 decision over Atlanta, and Baltimore blanked Chicago 10-0 on a Johnny Unitas touchdown pass and Lou Michaels' field goal.

In the AFL, Bob Humphreys booted a 33-yard field goal with five seconds left for Denver's 15-13 victory over Cincinnati, and Oakland bombed San Diego

Eagles Lose Tilt to Lions, Norm Snead Breaks Leg

By MIKE RECHT
Associated Press Sports Writer

A black cloud hovered over the head of Joe Kuharich today and it will be some time before it leaves, but all is sunny for George Wilson, who sees even brighter skies ahead.

"I'm just a jinxed coach," moaned Kuharich, whose Philadelphia Eagles lost a National Football League exhibition to Detroit 20-3 Sunday and their No. 1 quarterback Norm Snead to a broken leg.

"The black clouds are right over the top of us. (But) we can't jeopardize Snead's future. I personally won't push him... I'll go for the maximum knitting period."

Coach Wilson, on the other hand, was beaming after his Miami Dolphins tied Buffalo 28-28 in an American League contest and All-American fullback Larry Csonka climaxed his pro debut by scoring the tying touchdown in the final period.

"He made a few mistakes, but—and that's a big but—wait a few more weeks," Wilson said. "He'll really shake them up."

In Sunday's other pre-season game, Mike Clark kicked his third field goal of the game midway through the final period to give the Dallas Cowboys a 16-14 edge over San Francisco in the NFL.

On Saturday night in the NFL, the New York Giants shocked Green Bay 14-14 on Fran Tarkenton's four-yard touchdown pass to Joe Morrison with 14 seconds remaining; Charley Gogolak's 45-yard field goal with 16 seconds left gave Washington a 16-14 decision over Atlanta, and Baltimore blanked Chicago 10-0 on a Johnny Unitas touchdown pass and Lou Michaels' field goal.

In the AFL, Bob Humphreys booted a 33-yard field goal with five seconds left for Denver's 15-13 victory over Cincinnati, and Oakland bombed San Diego

RELIEF EXPERT - - - - - By Alan Maver

TED ABERNATHY, CINCINNATI REDS RELIEF EXPERT, MAY BE 5-9, BUT BATTERS FIND IT HARD TO BELIEVE THE WAY THE BALL COMES TO THE PLATE OFF HIS SUBMARINE DELIVERY—

New U.S. Satellite ATS-4 Proves $28 Million Failure

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — America's Applications Technology Satellite 4 tumbled around earth in the wrong orbit today as space engineers attempted to salvage what they could from a $28 million mission spoiled by rocket failure.

Officials at the National Aeronautics and Space Administration's Goddard Space Flight center in Greenbelt, Md., said ATS 4 was cartwheeling at the rate of one revolution every 40 seconds and was still attached to the upper stage of its Atlas Centaur booster rocket.

The drum-shaped satellite, packing a new weather-watching camera built to stalk storms in daylight or darkness, blasted into space Saturday aiming for an orbit that would keep it permanently positioned 22,300 miles over the equator west of South America.

En route, however, the Centaur upper stage of ATS 4's boosted rocket failed to re-start a second time as planned and, instead of drilling the satellite toward its lofty 22,300-mile high goal, left it stranded in a low orbit where cameras and communications experiments aboard the craft are useless.

NASA refused to speculate on why the failure occurred. Sources close to the investigation said engineers suspect something went wrong in the propellant system which feeds fuel into the Centaur engines. A pump used to build up pressure in the fuel tanks may have frozen, possibly because of a heater failure, they said. Without proper pressure in the fuel tanks, the engines would not start.

ATS 4 also did not separate from its 7,000-pound Centaur rocket as planned. With such a heavy weight on its tail, controlling the satellite will be difficult, if not impossible, officials said.

Project officials said the most that can probably be gained is engineering information that will tell whether satellite experiments survived the launch.

Officials said ATS 4 cost about $15 million. Its Atlas-Centaur rocket was valued at another $13 million.

Nightmare Comes True for Actress

SALISBURY, Rhodesia (AP) — The kind of nightmare most women dread being caught wearing haircurlers in public — came true for pretty Wendy Berk, but with a difference.

Thousands of television viewers saw the sophisticated TV personality do her one-girl advertising show blissfully unaware that two haircurlers were holding her blonde tresses in place. Apparently none of the studio crew noticed the curlers, but moments after concluding the show, studio telephones were jammed with calls.

Some suggested it was all a joke. Others thought the new fashion rather becoming. A few males were not as admiring and a lot of women offered sympathy.

Wendy's only comment: "I just want to curl up and die."

Alarming Kick

LOUISVILLE (AP) — A volleyball game produced quite a turnout at Assumption High School in Louisville.

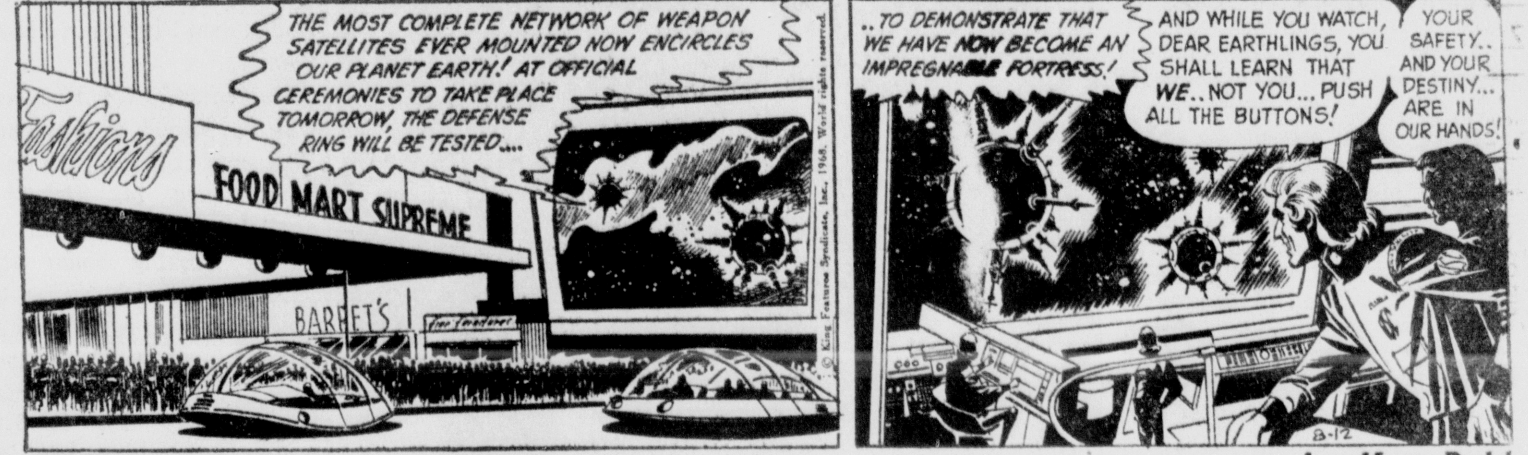

One of the girls kicked the ball against a fire alarm. That sent all of the students into the yard and brought six pieces of fire equipment hurrying to the school.

Things returned to normal after officials explained the accidental chain reaction that set off the alarm.

Three Counties Border Village of 441 Residents

By BETTY DAWLEY
Herald Staff Writer

Located in the triangle formed by the junction of Pickaway, Ross and Hocking Counties is the village of Adelphi. Atop the crest of a hill, it overlooks the valley of Salt Creek, commands a view of the Hocking Hills and is surrounded by rolling, fertile farmlands.

The 441 residents are governed by James Hettinger, serving his first term as Mayor, aided by council members Ronald Van Fossen, Lloyd Frazier, Russell Mettler, Charles Thurston, Voyden Smith and council president Burlin Hettinger. Marcela Thatcher is the village clerk and Sue Hinton holds the office of treasurer.

Law enforcement, a post which reportedly has a rapid turnover, is currently in the hands of Marshal Congrove.

Postmaster Helen E. Smith commenced her duties at the time the post office was moved into its present quarters, 16 years ago. News, information and mail are dispensed to the residents through the postal facilities.

FIRE Chief Walter L. Hettinger heads the volunteer group which operates through contract by Colerain Twp. and assists in other outside calls. The vehicles manned by the volunteers are one fire truck, a water truck and an emergency vehicle.

School-age youngsters attend the Adelphi school for grades 1-6. The junior high grades are transported to Kingston and on to the consolidated Zane Trace schools for senior high level.

Adelphi had, at one time, several active fraternal organizations evidenced by the many lodge-labelled buildings seen in the town. Still active are the Masons, Eastern Star and IOOF while other orders are nearly extinct.

Adelphi celebrated its sesquicentennial in 1954 and like many of the smaller and older cities of our state, it has a colorful history, little of which is now intact through preservation. Only a very few of the once impressive business buildings are now occupied. Most show signs of years of disuse.

State Route 180 passes through Adelphi to the village's Mother City of Chillicothe. There is no public transportation in or through the village itself, making it an isolated community. And being so remotely distant from the Ross county seat, Adelphi has always had a special affinity for the city of Circleville.

Down the hill and around the corner from Adelphi lies the Hocking County village of Laurelville. According to Adelphians, a spirited rivalry existed for generations between the two communities, undoubtedly aided and abetted by the acknowledged distillery in Adelphi. That persistent rivalry has passed, along with the distillery, leaving Adelphi a dry town, reflecting a most passive community.

Incident Brings Charges against Circleville Couple

An incident which began at Isaac's Market, 456 Clinton St., and ended at the Police Station resulted in charges against a Circleville man and woman in Municipal Court, Friday.

Connie Wooten, charged with reckless operation of a motor vehicle, pleaded not guilty to Acting Judge Allan Berger. She was fined $35 and costs, but $15 of the fine was suspended.

Her husband, Fred Wooten, pleaded not guilty to a charge of assault and battery. He was fined $20 and costs and half the fine was suspended.

According to reports told the judge during the hearing, Mrs. Wooten drove from the gravel parking lot of Isaac's Market on July 26. As she did, her tires flipped gravel onto a car driven by Mrs. Steve Thompson, Pinckney St., cracking the windshield and striking the Thompson's baby.

Steve Thompson went to the Wooten home to confront Fred Wooten about the incident. Thompson left for the Berger Court and then for the Police Department with Wooten following him. In the PD, Wooten allegedly hit Thompson with his fist.

vention night at a Chicago armory." Communications for the convention remained a problem. Striking electrical workers have agreed only to install communications equipment in the amphitheatre. Chicago hotels used by convention delegates will have to use their normal telephone systems.

Two threatened strikes also hang over convention planning. Cab drivers have threatened to strike Aug. 16 against the city's two largest cab companies, Yellow Cab and Checker Cab, unless the companies agree to install bulletproof partitions between the driver and passenger sections. They also want higher commissions. Drivers of buses, subway and elevated trains have threatened to strike the Chicago Transit Authority the day before the convention opens in a dispute with their parent union.

Ticket Sales Open for Upcoming Play

Players Group Sets Aug. 22, 23, 24 for 'Wake Up Darling'

Tickets went on sale today for the upcoming production of "Wake Up, Darling" by the Roundtown Players of Pickaway County.

The comedy by Alec Götlieb will be staged in the barn at Pickaway Country Club on Aug. 22, 23 and 24. Tickets are available from cast members or during banking hours at the Savings Bank where the ticket office has been established.

Patrons of the local theater group will want to reserve tickets early due to limited seating at the barn. Last year's summer production of "Picnic" resulted in standing-room-only performances.

"Wake Up, Darling" promises to be the organization's best effort yet, under the capable direction of Mrs. James Stambaugh. The director holds a long list of successes in the theater in the Columbus and Toledo areas. Assisting Mrs. Stambaugh is Mrs. Robert Young.

Chairman of ticket sales is Mrs. Richard L. Gerhardt.

Chillicothe Bypass Opens

Route 35 bypass around the north and east edges of Chillicothe will be officially opened 10 a.m. Tuesday.

Gov. James A. Rhodes will cut the ribbon to open the four-lane expressway to traffic.

The three-mile bypass can be traveled in three or four minutes and has no traffic signals. Cost of the project was $7 million. It was begun more than three years ago and is the largest construction contract in Highway Division Nine history since no federal funds were used.

Assisting the governor in the opening will be Richard Schachne Jr., president of the Chillicothe Area Chamber of Commerce; Col. DeForest Roust, Deputy Director of Highways for Division Nine; and Francis Wagner, highway chairman for the chamber.

Cancer Clinic Will Be Run Tonight

The semi-monthly Early Detection Cancer Clinic will be 7-9 p.m. today at Berger Hospital.

The clinic offers its services to all Pickaway County women of low income families. The Pap smear is a simple, painless test and can save many lives by early detection and treatment.

Three Counties Border Village of 441 Residents

By BETTY DAWLEY
Herald Staff Writer

Located in the triangle formed by the junction of Pickaway, Ross and Hocking Counties is the village of Adelphi. Atop the crest of a hill, it overlooks the valley of Salt Creek, commands a view of the Hocking Hills and is surrounded by rolling, fertile farmlands.

The 441 residents are governed by James Hettinger, serving his first term as Mayor, aided by council members Ronald Van Possen, Lloyd Frazier, Russell Mettler, Charles Thurston, Voyden Smith and council president Burlin Hettinger. Marcela Thatcher is the village clerk and Sue Hinton holds the office of treasurer.

Law enforcement, a post which reportedly has a rapid turnover, is currently in the hands of Marshal Congrove.

Postmaster Helen E. Smith commenced her duties at the time the post office was moved into its present quarters, 16 years ago. News, information and mail are dispensed to the residents through the postal facilities.

FIRE Chief Walter L. Hettinger heads the volunteer group which operates through contract by Colemar Twp. and assists in other outside calls. The vehicles manned by the volunteers are one fire truck, a water truck and an emergency vehicle.

School-age youngsters attend the Adelphi school for grades 1-6. The junior high grades are transported to Kingston and on to the consolidated Zane Trace schools for senior high level.

Adelphi had, at one time, several active fraternal organizations evidenced by the many lodge-labelled buildings seen in the town. Still active are the Masons, Eastern Star and IOOF while other orders are nearly extinct.

Adelphi celebrated its sesquicentennial in 1954 and like many of the smaller and older cities of our state, it has a colorful history, little of which is now intact through preservation. Only a very few of the once impressive business buildings are now occupied. Most show signs of years of disuse.

State Route 180 passes through Adelphi to the village's Mother City of Chillicothe. There is no public transportation in or through the village itself, making it an isolated community. And being so remotely distant from the Ross county seat, Adelphi has always had a special affinity for the city of Circleville.

Down the hill and around the corner from Adelphi lies the Hocking County village of Laurelville. According to Adelphi, a spirited rivalry existed for generations between the two communities, undoubtedly aided and abetted by the acknowledged distillery in Adelphi. That persistent rivalry has passed, along with the distillery, leaving Adelphi a dry town, reflecting a most passive community.

Incident Brings Charges against Circleville Couple

An incident which began at Isaac's Market, 456 Clinton St., and ended at the Police Station resulted in charges against a Circleville man and woman in Municipal Court, Friday.

Connie Wooten, charged with reckless operation of a motor vehicle, pleaded not guilty to Acting Judge Allan Berger. She was fined $35 and costs, but $15 of the fine was suspended.

Her husband, Fred Wooten, pleaded not guilty to a charge of assault and battery. He was fined $20 and costs and half the fine was suspended.

According to reports told the judge during the hearing, Mrs. Wooten drove from the gravel parking lot of Isaac's Market on July 26. As she did, her tires flipped gravel onto a car driven by Mrs. Steve Thompson, Pinekey St., cracking the windshield and striking the Thompson's baby.

Steve Thompson went to the Wooten home to confront Fred Wooten about the incident. Thompson left for the Berger Court and then for the Police Department with Wooten following him. In the PD, Wooten allegedly hit Thompson with his fist.

Ticket Sales Open for Upcoming Play

Players Group Sets Aug. 22, 23, 24 for 'Wake Up Darling'

Tickets went on sale today for the upcoming production of "Wake Up, Darling" by the Roundtown Players of Pickaway County.

The comedy by Alec Götlieb will be staged in the barn at Pickaway Country Club on Aug. 22, 23 and 24. Tickets are available from cast members or during banking hours at the Savings Bank where the ticket office has been established.

Patrons of the local theater group will want to reserve tickets early due to limited seating at the barn. Last year's summer production of "Picnic" resulted in standing-room-only performances.

"Wake Up, Darling" promises to be the organization's best effort yet, under the capable direction of Mrs. James Stambaugh. The director holds a long list of successes in the theater in the Columbus and Toledo areas. Assisting Mrs. Stambaugh is Mrs. Robert Young.

Chairman of ticket sales is Mrs. Richard L. Gerhardt.

Chillicothe Bypass Opens

Route 35 bypass around the north and east edges of Chillicothe will be officially opened 10 a.m. Tuesday.

Gov. James A. Rhodes will cut the ribbon to open the four-lane expressway to traffic.

The three-mile bypass can be traveled in three or four minutes and has no traffic signals. Cost of the project was $7 million. It was begun more than three years ago and is the largest construction contract in Highway Division Nine history since no federal funds were used.

Assisting the governor in the opening will be Richard Schachne Jr., president of the Chillicothe Area Chamber of Commerce; Col. DeForest Roust, Deputy Director of Highways for Division Nine; and Francis Wagner, highway chairman for the chamber.

Cancer Clinic Will Be Run Tonight

The semi-monthly Early Detection Cancer Clinic will be 7-9 p.m. today at Berger Hospital.

The clinic offers its services to all Pickaway County women of low income families. The Pap smear is a simple, painless test and can save many lives by early detection and treatment.

vention night at a Chicago armory.

Communications for the convention remained a problem. Striking electrical workers have agreed only to install communications equipment in the amphitheatre. Chicago hotels used by convention delegates will have to use their normal telephone systems.

Two threatened strikes also hang over convention planning.

Cab drivers have threatened to strike Aug. 16 against the city's two largest cab companies, Yellow Cab and Checker Cab, unless the companies agree to install bulletproof partitions between the driver and passenger sections. They also want higher commissions.

Drivers of buses, subway and elevated trains have threatened to strike the Chicago Transit Authority the day before the convention opens in a dispute with their parent union.
